RESOLUTION.

TARIFFS.

Simla, the 22nd June 1935.

No. 458-T. (14).—In response to the representations of certain glass manufacturers in India the Government of India in their resolution in the Department of Commerce No. 458-T. (2), dated the 20th October 1931, referred to the Tariff Board for examination the claim of the indigenous Glass Industry for protection. The terms of reference directed that the Tariff Board should be guided by the principles laid down in the resolution adopted by the Legislative Assembly on February 16, 1923, and that it should consider—

- (1) Whether the conditions laid down in the Report of the Indian Fiscal Commission were satisfied in the case of the industry and to what extent, if any, and in respect of what articles or class or description of articles protection should be afforded;
- (2) In what form and for what period protection, if any, should be given; and
- (3) How its recommendations, if any, would affect other industries.

2. The Report of the Tariff Board, which is published to-day for general information, shows that the Glass Industry has a wide geographical distribution in India and that there are as marked differences in the nature of its products and in the methods of their manufacture as in its location. But whatever differences may exist in these respects, the Report makes it clear that all branches of the industry have a common need for the same raw materials. In Chapter II of its Report the Board, in accordance with its terms of reference, has investigated the natural advantages possessed by the industry with a view to determining whether it satisfies the first condition prescribed by the Indian Fiscal Commission and in particular it has examined the resources of the industry in respect of raw materials. Of these by far the two most important are silica and soda ash, and while the Board is of opinion that ample supplies of the former in the form of sand of sufficiently good quality are available, it has found that satisfactory sources of soda ash are not yet in existence in India and that the industry is dependent on imported supplies. The Board does not, however, consider that this fact in itself invalidates the claim for protection and it finds that the first of the conditions prescribed by the Fiscal Commission is satisfied.

3. The Government of India regret that they are unable to accept this finding. They are of the opinion that the absence of indigenous supplies of a raw material which in the United Provinces, where the Glass Industry is to a great extent concentrated, represents 70—75 per cent. of the total cost of materials and which even at ports of entry represents 30—45 per cent. of that cost, constitutes a disadvantage to the industry which cannot possibly be balanced by any advantages which it possesses in other respects. The Government of India are unable to distinguish the present case from that of the manufacture of electric wires and cables in which the Tariff Board itself held that the absence of indigenous supplies of copper was a fatal obstacle to the grant of protection.

4. At the time when its Report was written, however, the Tariff Board expressed the opinion that supplies of soda ash would in the immediate future be available in this country. The Government of India were therefore reluctant to reject the claim of the industry for protection until it had been ascertained whether or not the anticipations of the Board were likely to be fulfilled. Enquiry has, however, shown that the Board was unduly optimistic and that no adequate source of Indian soda ash has yet been developed. It is possible, however, that a fresh source of supply may be available within the next few years at Khewra and the Government of India do not propose to take a final decision on the claim for protection until the possibilities of this new source have been more fully explored.

5. There are a number of other matters in respect of which the Government of India are unable to accept the Tariff Board's conclusions, but as they do not propose to take a final decision at present, it is unnecessary to discuss these now. In the meantime, until such final decision can be taken, the Government of India have decided to afford the glass manufacturing industry certain measure of relief by way of rebate of the duty on imported soda ash. The proposed procedure for granting this rebate is as follows:—

When a Collector of Customs is satisfied that any consignment or part of a consignment of soda ash imported at his port has been supplied, after the date of this Resolution, to a glass manufacturer for use, within a reasonable period, in the manufacture of glass, he will on the request of the importer pay to the glass manufacturer a refund of the entire duty in the case of soda ash of British or colonial origin and of the excess over 10 per cent. ad valorem in the case of other soda ash. The refund will be paid by cheque to the manufacturer or his authorised agent.

This concession will continue for three years at the end of which period, if it appears that a prima facie case for protection then exists, a further reference will be made to the Tariff Board.

The college provides well equipped gymnasium, common room and reading rooms for the use of the students who receive individual attention both in their studies and their games. Arrangements have been made to divide the boys into groups and place them under the effective and intimate guardianship of their teachers. There is a fine new two-storeyed Hindu hostel in the college compound, and hostel charges (including rent, furniture, light and medical attendance) do not exceed Rs. 13 a month. The boarders keep excellent health, and the general health in the town is also quite good. There is also a Muhammadan hostel attached to the college, charges being very moderate.

A considerable number of Government and private free-studentships and stipends is awarded every year in August or September to poor but deserving students of the college. Four stipends of Rs. 10, Rs. 7-12, Rs. 4 and Rs. 3 are also available for boarders of the Hindu hostel in straitened circumstances. Two College Conversion Mohsin stipends are annually awarded to deserving Muhammadan students.

For prospectus and admission form apply enclosing stamped and addressed envelope to the Principal, Krishnagar College.

PART IV

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council, Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council, and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2856L.C.—10th July, 1935.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Development Bill, 1935, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by them is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Development Bill, 1935.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Development Bill, 1935, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 8th March, 1935, have the honour to submit this our Report with the Bill as amended by us annexed. All matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter inserted has been underlined :—

1. The Bill was published in English in the Calcutta Gazette of the 14th February, 1935, before introduction.

2. The Committee met for the first time in Calcutta on the 26th March, 1935, continued its sittings in Darjeeling on the 13th May, 1935, and concluded them on the 22nd May, 1935.

3. We consider that the Bill has been so altered as to require republication.

4. The changes made in the Bill are as follows :—

Preamble.—We have modified the preamble to give greater emphasis to the real purpose of the Bill, viz : to provide for the development of lands in Bengal, the levy merely being a means by which that purpose is to be fulfilled.

Clause 2.—We have inserted a definition of “agricultural lands” in clause 2 (a1) to include lands used for the purpose of growing vegetables and the like.

We have substituted “notified area” for “benefited area” throughout the Bill, as being more appropriate. The definition of benefited area has therefore been omitted. The definition of the new phrase “notified area” has been provided for in clause 2 (5a).

We have made a slight emendation in the definition of Collector in clause 2 (2).

We have revised the definition of “improvement work” in clause 2 (4) to make it clear that it includes works of improvement constructed before the commencement of the Act.

We have inserted a definition of “notified area” consequential on the substitution of this phrase for “benefited area.”

The alteration in the definition of “period of objection” in clause 2 (6) is, in part, consequential. It has also been simplified.

Clause 3.—The changes in this clause are consequential upon the revised definition of improvement work in clause 2 (4).

Clause 4.—We have revised clause 4 (a) to provide for the giving of as full a description as practicable of an improvement work in the notification to be published under clause 3.

Clause 5.—We have simplified the provisions of this clause, and have modified sub-clauses (1) and (3) to make the intention clearer. We have also omitted the words “and such declaration shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court or in any other manner whatsoever”, in sub-clause (1), as unnecessary.

Clause 5 (2) (b) has been reproduced in new clause 5A.

Clause 5A.—The first part of this clause takes the place of clause 5 (2) (b) of the Bill as introduced, but we have provided that the Local Government shall only impose the improvement levy when it is satisfied that the notified area has benefited from the improvement work.

We have inserted an important proviso requiring that, before an improvement levy is imposed, the proposal shall have the recommendation of the Legislative Council.

Clause 5B.—We consider that in so far as it may be decided upon to impose an improvement levy in respect of the Damodar and Bakreswar canals, to which an indirect reference is made in the statement of objects and reasons, this should be provided for specifically in the Bill by proposed clause 5B instead of waiting for a resolution to be passed under clause 5A.

Clause 6.—In sub-clause (1), we have made it clear that the officer appointed to prepare the estimate under this sub-clause shall hear any objections that may be submitted to him.

We have also altered the proviso to make it clear that an estimate may be made on the assumption that the land has produced or will produce crops other than the staple crop.

We have redrafted clause 6 (2) to provide for the publication of estimates by the Board of Revenue and for consideration of objections and suggestions to the estimates by the Board. Thereafter the Local Government may reject the estimate or may, by notification, accept it with or without modification.

By clause 6 (3) we have provided for the revision of the estimate in certain cases.

Clause 7.—We have simplified the provisions of this clause and reduced the period for which the price may be fixed from 10 to 5 years.

Clause 8.—We have entirely recast this clause which deals with the incidence of improvement levy on agricultural lands.

Clause 8A.—We have inserted this new clause because we think that it will be impossible to prevent increased salami from being realised by landlords or raiyats where land benefited by improvement work is settled or re-settled by them after the imposition of an improvement levy and that provision should be made for a part of the increase in the amount of salami obtainable by such landlords or raiyats being paid as improvement levy.

This decision was reached by a majority of non-official members, and the official members abstained from taking part in the voting.

Clause 9.—This clause reproduces, with verbal alterations, the substance of clause 9 (1) of the Bill as introduced which lays down the maximum limit of the levy which may be imposed on non-agricultural lands included within a notified area.

Clause 9A.—This clause reproduces, with slight verbal alteration, sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause 9 (2) of the Bill as introduced.

Clause 9AA.—In this clause we have made provision for the determination by the Collector—

- (i) of the amount of levy payable for non-agricultural lands, and
- (ii) of its manner of payment—

(a) in the case of increased capital profit in one lump sum, and

(b) in case of increased recurring profit, at an annual rate.

In sub-clause (2) of clause 9AA we have provided that no improvement levy shall be imposed unless the amount has been determined by the Collector within ten years from the date of the completion of the improvement work.

Clause 9B.—We have made provision by this clause for the payment by instalments of an improvement levy assessed in one sum under sub-clause (a) of clause 9AA and for recovery of arrears with interest.

Clause 9C entitles a person liable to pay an improvement levy at an annual rate under clause (b) of sub-clause (1) of clause 9AA to commute his liability on agreed terms. It follows in the main the wording of clause 9(e) of the Bill as introduced.

Clause 9D is new and makes specific provision for the publication of the date of the completion of an improvement work: it is necessitated by clause 9AA (2).

Clause 10.—The changes are either consequential or of a drafting character to make the intention clearer.

Clause 10A.—This clause is new and provides for the issue of a notice of demand on every person liable to pay an improvement levy by which we ensure that information is given to each person of his liability, before the stage is reached when he should, if he so desires, appeal.

Clause 10B.—This reproduces with modifications the provisions of clause 13 of the Bill as introduced. But it allows revision by the Collector at this stage and it also provides for the re-publication of the statement prepared under section 10 before the presumption of correctness is attached to it.

Clauses 11 and 11A.—We have reproduced the provisions about appeals in clauses 11 and 11A with certain important modifications as follows:—

Clause 11, as revised, provides for appeals as regards agricultural lands while clause 11A deals with those in connection with non-agricultural lands.

It will be noticed that instead of leaving the appellate authority to be prescribed by rules, as in the Bill as introduced, we have specifically mentioned the authorities to whom appeals will lie in all cases.

In the case of clause 11A, the majority of non-official members (the official members abstaining from taking part in the voting) were desirous of inserting a provision that the High Court be empowered to interfere in regard to appeals, but it was pointed out that such a provision would be ultra vires in an Act of the Local Legislature whereupon the members urged that mention should be made in the report that the Government of India be asked to introduce a Bill in the Indian Legislature containing provisions similar to those of the Calcutta Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1911 (XVIII of 1911) conferring the necessary powers on the High Court.

Clause 13.—We have omitted this clause and have provided in new clause 10B for the re-publication of the statement prepared under section 10 before the presumption of correctness is attached to it.

Clause 14.—The changes made in clause 14 are consequential.

Clause 16.—The changes made in sub-clause (1) are consequential.

Sub-clause (2) has been revised to provide for payment of interest on arrears of improvement levy at a rate not exceeding $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. per annum. The reference to the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act in the sub-clause as introduced has been omitted as unnecessary. We have omitted sub-clauses (3) to (5) of clause 16 in the Bill as introduced, and have provided a new clause 16A on the lines of section 82 of Ben. Act III of 1876 dealing with the power of the Collector to contract with any person for collection of the improvement levy.

Clause 16A.—This is in substitution of sub-clauses (3) to (5) of clause 16 referred to above.

Clause 16B.—This clause is new and provides for refund of the improvement levy in those cases in which it is subsequently found to be not payable.

Clause 17.—The reference to costs has been omitted from this clause as being unnecessary in view of the provisions of new clause 29A.

Clause 18.—We have removed certain restrictions from this clause so as to make it of more general application and more useful for the purposes of the inquiries contemplated.

Clause 19A.—We have re-numbered sub-clause (3) of clause 19 as a separate clause 19A as this provision is of a more general application.

Clause 19B.—In sub-clause (1) we have provided that no person who pays an improvement levy under the Bill shall be liable to pay any rates, dues or charges to the Government under any other Act in return for any benefit derived from such improvement work.

In sub-clause (2) we have made provision for those cases in which there are existing agreements under the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876.

Clause 20.—The changes are purely consequential. We have also corrected the reference to the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876, from section "75" to "74".

Clause 21.—We have slightly modified this clause in order to bring out the intention more clearly.

Clauses 22 and 23.—The changes are of a purely drafting character.

Clause 24.—In sub-clause (2), we have made it clear that the application of the clause is restricted to artificial obstructions.

We have omitted the reference to costs of the hearing as unnecessary.

Sub-clause (4) has been revised by reducing the penalties. The other changes in this sub-clause are merely verbal.

We have omitted sub-clause (5).

Clause 26.—We have revised this clause so as to prevent claims to compensation for damages caused by the revival of dead or decayed rivers.

We have omitted sub-clause (a), and have provided that such cases of injury, damages or loss should be governed by clause 27.

Clause 27.—We have altered sub-clause (1), of this clause and have provided that persons suffering loss in the circumstances mentioned shall not be entitled to any compensation under any other law, but may apply to the Collector for such compensation as may be granted under the provisions of the Bill.

Sub-clause (2) has been reproduced in clause 31B.

Clause 28.—This clause has been recast.

Under sub-clause (2) the award of compensation by the Collector will be regulated by rules. As apportionment disputes cannot suitably be decided by the Collector provision has been made in sub-clause (3) for the reference of such disputes to the Court. Court has been defined as in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

Clause 29 has been revised to provide specifically for appeals to the Commissioner of the Division subject to revision by the Board of Revenue, and not to an authority to be prescribed by rules as in clause 29 of the Bill as introduced.

Clause 29A.—This clause provides for the award of costs in appellate and revisional proceedings and for the recovery of the same—Cf. sub-clause (2) of original clause 11. The reference to costs in clause 17 has accordingly been omitted.

Clause 30.—We have entirely re-cast sub-clauses (b) and (c) of this clause dealing with the question of the restriction on the enhancement of rent in regard to lands settled after the imposition of an improvement levy, in order to make the intention of the provisions more clear, and we have added a provision to prevent contracts for the evasion of these restrictions by commuting rents for lump payments.

Clause 31.—We have simplified this clause so as to make it of general application.

Clause 31A.—This clause is new. We consider this saving clause to be necessary. It is based on section 34 of Ben. Act VI of 1920.

Clause 31B.—This provision reproduces with slight modifications sub-clause (2) of clause 27 of the Bill as introduced which dealt with the bar to suits for compensation.

Clause 33.—The changes are purely consequential on the emendations made in the respective clauses of the Bill under which rules are to be framed.

The Committee, by the decision of a majority of the non-official members, decided that mention should be made in this report of a proposal which emanated from a member to insert a provision in the Bill to the following effect:—

“30A. In a benefited area as defined by this Act a raiyyat having a right of occupancy shall be entitled upon payment to his immediate landlord of an amount equivalent to two years' rent as salami to acquire the rights of a raiyyat at a fixed rate of rent.”

The Committee desire to add that as the matter was of such outstanding importance they felt that, without specific instructions, it would be better, instead of coming to a decision as to the insertion, or otherwise, of such a provision in the Bill as reported on by them, to leave the matter to be dealt with in open Council should any member desire to raise the question by the moving of an amendment on the floor of the House under the provisions of the Rules and Standing Orders.

The Committee recommend that the Bill, as reported on by them, be passed.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Narendra Kumar Basu, M.L.C.

Clause 5B.—I am not in favour of making the provisions of the Bill retrospective.

Clause 24.—There ought to be a provision for the payment of the costs of the modification in suitable cases.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Sarat Kumar Roy, M.L.C.

The main ground of my objection to the Bill is that it overlooks the root causes which have led to the bad drainage and the resultant water-logging and other mischievous consequences in Bengal. It is true that the situation is extremely deplorable and urgently calls for a remedy, but for that reason, one should not forget that the evil arose from unrestricted drawing off of water from the river Ganges in Upper India, the erection of innumerable railway and other embankments with inadequate outlets for discharge of surplus water and such other things over which the agriculturists of Bengal have practically no hand at all, and hence for the consequences of which they cannot be held responsible. At any rate, the landlords of Bengal ought not to be victimised for the mischievous consequences that have followed. But curiously enough the Government of Bengal have thought it proper to impose the levy on the agriculturists and the landlords alone, to provide funds for a remedy of this evil. Clearly the Government should have sought the remedy elsewhere.

The landlords of Bengal are already finding great difficulty in realising rents from their tenants. Though it is claimed that the tenants' financial position will be greatly improved by the development of their lands in the way proposed, it is apprehended that on the contrary, the tenants of Bengal will be still further embarrassed by the new levy, inasmuch as the levy will, I am afraid, in many instances, exceed the rent they are now paying. Hence, the so-called improvement, instead of being a blessing, will prove a burden on them and that will add to their difficulty in paying rents. Consequently, the landlords will also be greatly embarrassed. It would, therefore, have been much wiser for the Government to seek the remedy by other means.

In any case, I think, the above facts ought not to be lost sight of in framing the details of this legislative measure. I, therefore, strongly protest against the following provisions of this Bill:—

Clause 3.—There is hardly any justification for imposing the levy on non-agricultural lands. The holders of such lands will not derive any benefit directly, just as others in the country also will not do. Hence, it is not equitable to include the former while excluding, for the same reason, the latter. I, therefore, object to the words "or the profits from any land not used for agricultural purposes" in lines 6 and 7 of this clause.

Clause 6.—I think the principle underlying section 39 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, regarding selection of the crop for determining the increased profit of any land, should be followed invariably. I, therefore, object to the proviso to this clause and particularly to the amendment made thereto by the Select Committee.

Clause 8A.—It is doubtful if a landlord will succeed in realising a salami in every case he makes a settlement of his khas lands with tenants. Hence, if the Collector imposes a levy on such landlord on the assumption that a salami is obtainable by him, the landlord will have to bear it from his own pocket. I, therefore, strongly oppose the imposition of a levy on estimated salami and would, therefore, suggest the deletion of the new clause 8A inserted by the Select Committee.

I protest against the insertion of the remarks in the report regarding the proposed 30A. I think, in making such a suggestion, we would clearly exceed our authority. This clause, if inserted in the Bill, will affect seriously the existing land laws of Bengal, and it is not fair to attempt to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act by the back door, as has been sought by the proposed amendment. Hence, I cannot subscribe to the remarks made in this connection in the report.

There are several other defects in the amendments proposed by the Select Committee, which I cannot support. I shall place my viewpoints on them before the Council, when the Bill will be considered by it.

Minute of dissent by Rai Bahadur Satya Kinkar Sahana, M.L.C.

Though I fully approve the main object of the Bill, rather welcome it, I cannot help thinking that there is room for difference of opinion regarding the details. I do not agree with all the provisions which are calculated to bring in complications and to antagonise numerous sections of the people to such an extent as to create great obstacle to the proper functioning of the Bill passed into an Act. In the Statement of Objects and Reasons of the Bill it has been mentioned that this Bill is mainly intended to avoid an impending disaster caused by the inconsiderate protective embankments, the progeny of the desire of profit of the Railway and Steamer Companies. It is the first bounden duty of every Government to improve the sanitation, agriculture, industry and other sources of wealth of the country from the revenue of the country; it is more so with our Government as the decadence of the decadent areas in Bengal set in within the last 150 years. Smarting under an unjust financial arrangement our province has got a penurious coffer. Considering all this the people, though they have long ago crossed the taxable limit, do not object to a levy for the purpose of the improvement of the decadent areas and so avoid a disaster. But why the levy should be made permanent and not temporary or only for that period by which the capital expenditure together with a reasonable interest be realized, passes my comprehension. The fact that crores of rupees that the Irrigation Department spent since its inception was mostly spent over the navigable waterways of East Bengal, but when the question of reviving the dead and dying rivers of Central and West Bengal becomes imperative a levy is to be imposed, cannot but cause heartache; but if that levy be made permanent, the sense of justice of the people cannot but be shocked.

Clause 5A.—There should be a clear proviso to the clause that the levy shall not continue longer than the period required for the realisation of the capital expenditure together with interest.

Clause 5B.—There are strong rumours of suspicion that the main object of the Development Bill is to realise the money, not very judiciously spent, over the Damodar and Bakreswar Canals by imposing a levy on the hard-hit agriculturists. This clause empowering the Government to impose a levy in respect of the said canals without a recommendation from the Bengal Legislative Council is calculated to confirm their suspicion and to strike them with panic. This cannot be desirable. This clause should be deleted.

Clause 9AA (1) (a).—The principle of the Bill as mentioned in the Statement of Objects and Reasons is to impose the levy on the basis of increased profits which was understood to be increased recurring profits or increment in the annual yield. In this clause "increased capital profits" have been introduced. Those words are explained to mean increment in salami or price or consideration, i.e., increased value. The introduction of this new principle will, I fear, lead to endless complications and litigations. There can be little doubt that in the improved areas the capital profits of agricultural lands in the shape of salami or value will increase as well. If the capital profits for non-agricultural lands be made leviable, what justification there will be for exempting those for agricultural lands? Further, many people will try to avoid the levy by making false entries in the documents about the salami or the consideration or the class of the land and that will cause a double loss of stamp revenue and levy revenue. I think the principle of levying the increased capital profits should not be introduced and this sub-clause should be deleted.

I sign the Report of the Select Committee with the above remarks and reserve the right of moving amendments during the discussion of the Bill in the Council.

Minute of dissent by Khan Bahadur Md. Abdul Momln, M.L.C.

I do not agree to the principle of the Bill with regard to the levy of the Irrigation Tax. I do not recognise the right of Government to any share of the profit, but only to the recovery of the amount of actual cost incurred.

I also object to some of the provisions of the Bill which I shall state at a later stage.

of 1885.

Provided that the rate so fixed shall not exceed one-half of the estimated net increased profits resulting from the improvement work or one-half of the net value of the estimated increase in outturn.

[shall be deemed to be an occupier.]

[(5) Any contract empowering an occupier to recover from another occupier any amount, or part of any amount, recovered or recoverable under section 16 shall, to that extent, be void.]

Additional improvement
levy in certain cases.

8A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 8, if any agricultural land in a notified area was at the time of the imposition of the improvement levy in the direct possession of a landlord or a raiyat, or has, after such imposition, come into the direct possession of a landlord or a raiyat and such land is thereafter settled with any person, the landlord or raiyat who settles the land shall be liable to pay, in one sum, an improvement levy of such amount as the Collector, in accordance with rules made under this Act, may fix. Such amount shall not exceed one-half of the difference between—

- (a) the amount which the Collector estimates to be the usual salami, at the time of the settlement, for a like area of land of a similar description, and with similar advantages, in the vicinity, and
- (b) the amount which the Collector estimates to have been the usual salami, before the commencement of the improvement work, for a like area of land, in the vicinity, similar in its description and its advantages to the land as it was at that time.

Such levy shall be additional to the levy payable under section 8 by the occupier of the land.

- (c) he may call upon any person who, in his opinion, is receiving or likely to receive profits in connection with such land, to submit to him within a specified period a written statement with such particulars as the Collector may specify relating to such profits ;
- (d) if such a written statement is not submitted within the specified period or if the Collector is not satisfied that the profits received in connection with such land have been fully and correctly shown in such written statement, he may proceed to prepare an estimate of the increased profits which result from the improvement work ;
- (e) he may permit any person to commute his liability for payment of the improvement levy in respect of any such land on such terms as may be settled by agreement, and thereafter no liability for payment of improvement levy shall attach to such land unless the profits from it are further increased by fresh improvement works.]

Nomination of candidates for election.

13. (1) Any person whose name is included in the Register of Registered Practitioners and who is not disqualified for election to the

Provided that—

(a) at a general election—

(i) for an electorate under clause (g) each qualified elector may nominate a maximum number of two candidates, one of whom must be a teacher. Should he nominate more candidates than one, one of the nominees must be a teacher,

(ii) for an electorate under clause (f) and an electorate under clause (h) each qualified elector may nominate a maximum number of four and three candidates, respectively, of whom in each case one shall be a teacher and another a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta. Should a qualified elector nominate more than two candidates for the former [the electorate under clause (f)] and more than one candidate for the latter electorate [under clause (h)]— in the case of a single additional nomination, it must be of a candidate who is either a teacher or a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta, or who combines both these qualifications in himself; in the case of two additional nominations they must be of two candidates who possess in the alternative the qualification of teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta, or combine both qualifications in themselves. In the event of a single candidate thus nominated possessing both qualifications an additional qualified candidate who is neither a teacher nor a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta may be proposed as the second nominee.

(b) in the case of a casual vacancy affecting a member originally elected to provide a special qualification or qualifications as teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta or both, the nominee must possess the particular qualification or either of such qualifications, as the case may be.

(2) Such nomination of each candidate shall be made in writing with complete particulars required on a separate nomination paper in Form II in the Appendix, which shall be supplied by the Returning Officer concerned on application.

(3) The nomination paper of each candidate nominated to represent any of the electorates mentioned in clause (c), clause (f), clause (g) or clause (h) of section 4 shall be subscribed by two qualified electors of the particular electorate concerned, by one as proposer and by the other as seconder :

Provided that no elector may subscribe, whether as proposer or seconder, more nomination papers than the number of vacancy or vacancies to be filled at the particular election by the electorate to which he belongs.

(4) The nomination paper shall be subscribed also by the candidate nominated as assenting to the nomination and shall be forwarded by post or otherwise to reach the Returning Officer not later than the latest date and time specified by him thereon for its return.

14. On receipt of each nomination paper the Returning Officer shall forthwith endorse thereon the date and hour of its receipt.

He shall examine each nomination paper and shall record on it his decision accepting or rejecting the same, and, if a nomination paper is rejected, shall state in brief his reasons for such rejection, e.g., that it does not comply with the requirements of any particular rule or that it has arrived after the latest date and time fixed for the receipt of nominations.

15. If more nomination papers than are allowed by the proviso to rule 13 (3) be subscribed by the same elector, then only the permissible number of such nomination papers first received by the Returning Officer shall, if otherwise in order, be held to be valid, but if the Returning Officer is unable to determine the order in which such nomination papers were received by him, all of such nomination papers shall be held to be invalid.

16. Every nomination paper in respect of which any requirement of these rules has not been complied with, or which is not received by the Returning Officer on or before the latest date and time fixed for the sending in of nomination papers, shall be invalid.

N. B.—Temporary change of station of practice shall be disregarded.

Scrutiny of nomination papers.

17. (1) On the date and at the time and place appointed by the Returning Officer under rule 26 for the scrutiny of nomination papers, every candidate and his proposer and seconder may attend, and the Returning Officer shall allow them to examine the nomination papers of all candidates which have been received by him and on which he has noted the result of his examination under rule 14.

(2) The Returning Officer shall decide all objections to his decision as well as all questions which may be raised as to the validity of any nomination, and his decision on any such question shall, subject to the provisions of rules 28 and 29, be final.

N. B.—For contingencies that necessitate the declaration of candidates as elected immediately after the scrutiny of nominations see rule 19 (1).

18. Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing subscribed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer up to 3 o'clock in the afternoon on the date succeeding that appointed for the scrutiny of nominations. A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be renominated as a candidate for the same election. The candidature of any candidate shall remain valid for all purposes of these rules unless withdrawn in accordance with this rule (vide notification No. 4101Medl., dated the 20th December 1929).

Election and voting.

19. (1) If in the case of an entire election, whether general or casual, to be held at any time under any clause of section 4 other than clause (d) and clause (e), the total number of duly nominated candidates with or without special qualifications as required by the section who stand for election or remain in the field after withdrawal of candidates signified before the completion of scrutiny of nomination papers does not exceed the number of members with or without the same qualifications to be elected at the time under that clause, the Returning Officer shall on the completion of such scrutiny in the presence of the candidates, their proposers and seconders forthwith declare such candidate or candidates (if duly qualified) to be elected.

Should this contingency arise as a result of withdrawal under rule 18 communicated after the scrutiny no poll shall be held for the particular electorate concerned and the fact shall forthwith be notified in the Calcutta Gazette, but the formal declaration of result of its election shall be held over until the date of counting of votes in respect of other electorates.

(2) If the number of such candidates with or without special qualifications exceeds the numbers with or without the same qualifications to be so elected, the Returning Officer shall—

- (a) cause the names, qualifications, with any special qualifications required by section 4, registration numbers and addresses of the candidates offering for election under each such clause to be entered alphabetically in the order of their surnames in a separate voting paper in Form III in the Appendix, and
- (b) thereupon publish in the Calcutta Gazette and in such other manner as he may think fit the said names, with the respective qualifications, and addresses, classified according to the clauses of section 4.

(3) The Returning Officer shall by a date fixed under rule 26 send by registered post to each qualified elector concerned at his registered address one such voting paper (and no more) of candidates for election under the clause or clauses of section 4 under which he is qualified to vote, with an identification envelope as prescribed in these rules.

Provided that—

Such a voting paper with an identification envelope shall also be issued to such an elector (if any) to whom a voting paper has not been sent already, on his applying to the Returning Officer for the same at any time before the latest date and time appointed by him for return of voting papers. In no other case shall a voting paper be issued after the last date prescribed under rule 26 for the issue of voting papers nor shall a voting paper not delivered to a voter by the post office be re-issued to him on its return to the office of the Returning Officer.

(4) No election shall be invalidated by reason of the non-receipt by any elector of a voting paper.

20. Each qualified elector desirous of recording votes shall mark the voting paper issued to him with a single cross X (and no other mark) in the proper column against the name or names of the candidate or candidates (not exceeding the number of members to be elected) for whom he intends to vote (A vote recorded otherwise than on the voting paper supplied shall not be accepted.) No elector shall give more than one vote to any one candidate:

Provided that—

(a) at a general election—

- (i) for an electorate under clause (g) a qualified elector may give a maximum number of two votes to two candidates, of whom one must be a teacher. Should he vote for more candidates than one, one of the candidates supported must be a teacher.
- (ii) for an electorate under clause (f) and an electorate under clause (h) a qualified elector may give a maximum number of four and three votes, respectively, to as many candidates, of whom in each case one shall be a teacher and another a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta. Should an elector vote for more than two candidates for the former [the electorate under clause (f)] and more than one candidate for the latter electorate [under clause (h)]— in case he records a single additional vote it must be in favour of a candidate who is either a teacher or a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta, or who combines both these special qualifications in himself;

in case he records two additional votes they must be in favour of two candidates who possess in the alternative the qualification of teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta, or combine both qualifications in themselves. In the event of a single candidate thus supported possessing both qualifications the second additional vote may be recorded in favour of a qualified candidate who is neither a teacher nor a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta.

(b) in the case of a casual vacancy affecting a member originally elected to provide a special qualification or qualifications as teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta or both, the candidate voted for must possess the particular qualification or either of such qualifications, as the case may be.

The qualified elector shall sign furnishing full particulars the requisite declaration printed on the identification envelope received with each voting paper, place the voting paper in this envelope, close it and deliver it personally to or send it singly by post to reach the Returning Officer on or before the latest day and time fixed by him for the return of voting papers with the relative identification envelopes.

No voting paper will be accepted unless it is enclosed in the identification envelope supplied with it, and any defect, e.g., incompleteness in the entries required on the envelope or its receipt after the latest day and time fixed for its return with the proper voting paper shall invalidate both the envelope and the voting paper enclosed.

Every voting paper in respect of which any requirement of these rules has not been complied with or on which a mark is placed in such a manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote is given or on which the elector has placed any mark whereby he may be afterwards identified or on which an alteration or erasure occurs indicating a change of vote or which is not received by the Returning Officer on or before the latest day and time fixed for the return of voting papers, shall be invalid.

Counting of votes and declaration and publication of results of election.

21. (1) On receiving the identification envelopes the Returning Officer shall divide them into separate batches according to the different electorates concerned and shall examine the envelopes in each batch separately as regards the completeness or otherwise of the particulars required to be entered thereon, and, in the case of an election under clause (f) or clause (h) of section 4, shall divide the said envelopes into two sets, viz., (1) those received from practitioners practising in Calcutta, and (2) those received from practitioners practising outside Calcutta, and shall record his decision "rejected" on any identification envelopes which are incomplete in any requisite entry, mark thereon the incompleteness of entry and place them in safe custody for inspection at the counting of votes. The distinction of divided batches and sets shall be maintained throughout the entire process of counting of votes.

(2) The Returning Officer shall place the identification envelopes which are complete in requisite entries which he provisionally accepts as containing valid voting papers without opening them in a separate ballot box for each electorate.

22. (1) The Returning Officer shall attend for the purpose of counting the votes on such date or dates and at such time and place as may be appointed by him under rule 26.

(2) Every candidate may be present in person or may send a representative, duly authorised by him in writing, to watch the process of counting.

(3) The Returning Officer shall show all identification envelopes whether accepted or rejected to the candidates or their representatives for examination of the propriety of their acceptance or rejection, and dispose of any objection taken to his decision in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (5).

(4) The accepted identification envelopes in sets where so divided under sub-rule (1) of rule 21 will then be opened in the presence of the candidates or their representatives appearing under sub-rule (2) and the voting papers will be separated from their covers which will be kept aside from view and the Returning Officer will thereupon proceed to examine the voting papers to see whether they have been filled up correctly in respect of every requisite particular, and, in the case of an election under clause (f) or clause (h) of section 4, shall maintain the division of the said voting papers into two sets, viz., (1) those received from practitioners practising in Calcutta, and (2) those received from practitioners practising outside Calcutta, made with reference to the relative identification envelopes under sub-rule (1) of rule 21. He shall record his decision "rejected" on every voting paper which is found to be defective in any respect and indicate thereon with reference to rule 20 the ground of rejection very briefly. The remaining voting papers will be deemed as accepted. Each convenient batch of voting papers, whether accepted or rejected, will be presented in separate sets where so divided to the candidates or their representatives present for examination of the Returning Officer's decision.

(5) If any objection is taken to his decision of acceptance or rejection of any identification envelopes or voting papers, such objection shall be decided at once by the Returning Officer, whose decision shall, subject to the provisions of rules 28 and 29, be final.

(6) The Returning Officer shall separate or cause to be separated the accepted voting papers from those that have been rejected and keep them in separate bundles. The identification envelopes originally rejected and those provisionally accepted when separated from their enclosed voting papers shall also be kept in separate bundles. All these bundles of voting papers and identification envelopes will be placed in safe custody for disposal under rule 24.

23. (1) When the counting of the votes of each electorate has been completed by the conduct of the operation on one or more days as necessary the Returning Officer shall, subject to the provisions of section 4, and of the subsequent portion of this rule, forthwith declare the duly qualified candidate or candidates, as the case may be, to whom the largest number of valid votes has been given to be elected.

(2) When an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates, and the addition of a vote will entitle any of the said candidates to be declared elected, the determination of the person or persons to whom such one additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lot to be drawn in the presence of the Returning Officer and in such manner as he may determine.

(3) When a candidate elected for a particular electorate by operation of sub-rule (1) happens subsequently to receive the highest number of valid votes of another electorate he shall be allowed to choose for which of the two electorates he shall serve and the choice once made by the candidate shall be final.

When a seat of a particular electorate remains unfilled by the operation of this sub-rule or becomes vacant by the refusal of the elected candidate to serve, such refusal being signified before his name is published in the Calcutta Gazette under rule 25, the seat may be filled by that one among the other candidates willing to accept office who has received the highest number of votes among unsuccessful candidates of the electorate affected at the election. If there is no unsuccessful candidate a fresh election shall be held to fill the vacancy thus created.

The Returning Officer shall determine which candidate should be declared as elected under this sub-rule and announce the results as soon as possible after the counting of votes.

The declaration in this case may be made either in the presence of the candidates or their representatives if present or merely by notification in the Calcutta Gazette under rule 25.

N. B.—(a) To select the two candidates elected for the electorate under clause (g) the candidate with the requisite qualification of teacher who has secured the largest number of votes should first be declared as elected and then the candidate who has secured the largest number among the rest. To select respectively the four and three candidates elected for the electorates under clauses (f) and (h) a separate list shall be prepared for each electorate showing all candidates with an indication of special qualifications as teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta where such exist, the number of votes received by each from the registered practitioners practising within and outside Calcutta separately and the total number of such votes polled. The mufassal candidate with the largest number of mufassal votes shall first be declared as elected in each electorate and, secondly, the candidate with the special qualification of teacher who has polled the highest number of total votes and, lastly, the remaining member or members, two for the electorate under clause (f) and one for that under clause (h) shall be declared as elected with reference to the highest number of total votes polled. In the event of the first selection made as above possessing both special qualifications the remaining members three for the electorate under clause (f) and two for that under clause (h) shall be elected with reference to the largest totals of votes polled, (vide Government of Bengal letter No. 128T.—Medl., dated the 10th June 1922).

(b) Temporary changes of station of practice should be disregarded.

(4) The Returning Officer shall immediately report the results of the elections to the President. Should the election fail to secure members with the requisite special qualification or qualifications required by section 4 in any case, the defect in respect of each electorate under clause (f), clause (g) and clause (h) of that section should at the same time be reported for the information of the President along with any defect in the number of candidates with or without special qualification that offered for election and the want of candidates willing to accept office in circumstances contemplated in paragraph 2 of sub-rule (3).

24. Upon the completion of the counting of votes and after the results have been declared by him, the Returning Officer shall seal up the voting papers with their identification envelopes and all other documents relating to the elections and shall retain the same for a period of six months and thereafter cause them to be destroyed.

25. The Returning Officer shall as soon as may be after the election publish the names of the candidates declared elected in the Calcutta Gazette.

26. The Returning Officer shall appoint and shall notify in the Calcutta Gazette and in such other manner as he may think fit such date or dates or latest date, as the case may be, and, if necessary, such time and place as may be deemed suitable, for each of the following operations of an election, namely:—

- (a) the receiving of nominations under rule 13;
- (b) the scrutiny of nomination papers under rule 17;
- (c) the sending of voting papers with the relative identification envelopes under rule 19;

- (d) the receiving of voting papers with the relative identification envelopes under rule 20; and
- (e) the counting of the votes under rules 22 and 23.

The dates appointed must ensure the completion of the election, in the case of a general election in ample time before the expiry of the term of office of the sitting members and, in the case of a casual vacancy under section 9 (1) or resulting from the death or resignation of a member or from the operation of rule 30, within the month prescribed by section 10.

General Rules for election under clauses (c) to (h) of section 4—Report of results of elections by the President to the Local Government.

27. On receipt of the report under rule 23 (4) the President shall forthwith report to the Local Government the results of all elections for action under section 7. He shall at the same time report, for action under section 5, what seats, if any, of any electorates could not be filled by election owing to defect in the number of candidates offering, or of candidates with the requisite special qualification of teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta where necessary or to want of candidates willing to accept office in circumstances contemplated in paragraph 2 of rule 23 (3).

Finality of decisions of the Local Government.

28. The Local Government may, of its own motion or on objection made within three months from the date of the election, declare any election to the Council to be void on account of corrupt practice (e.g., bribery, undue influence, personation, publication of false statements) or any other sufficient cause, and may call on the electorate affected to make a fresh election within a specified date, and any decision of the Local Government under this rule shall be final.

29. The decision of the Local Government on any question that may arise as to the intention, construction or application of these rules shall be final.

Rule under section 33 (1) of the Act—Vacation of seat.

30. If a registered practitioner having been elected or nominated a member is found guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect and his name is removed from the Register of Registered Practitioners, the Council shall, at the same time, declare his seat to be vacant.

The President shall report the fact to the Local Government and the vacancy shall be filled like a casual vacancy within one month by fresh election or nomination as the case may be, under sections 4 and 10 and these rules.

1. Each elector has as many votes as there are members to be elected on each particular occasion (number to be specified in each case). If he does not wish to use all his votes (in the cases where more than one vote is allowed), he need not do so, but more than one vote may not be given to any one candidate.

2. (a) At a general election—

(i) for an electorate under clause (g) of section 4 a qualified elector may give a maximum number of two votes to two candidates, of whom one must be a teacher. Should he vote for more candidates than one, one of the candidates favoured must be a teacher.

(ii) For an electorate under clause (f) of section 4 and an electorate under clause (h) of section 4 a qualified elector may give a maximum number of four and three votes respectively to as many candidates, of whom one shall be a teacher and another a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta in each case. Should he vote for more than two candidates for the former and more than one candidate for the latter electorate—

in case he records a single additional vote it must be in favour of a candidate who is either a teacher or a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta or who combines both these special qualifications in himself;

in case he records two additional votes they must be in favour of two candidates who possess in the alternative the qualification of teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta or combine both qualifications in themselves. In the event of a single candidate thus supported possessing both qualifications the second additional vote may be recorded in favour of a qualified candidate who is neither a teacher nor a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta.

(b) In the case of a casual vacancy arising out of a casualty affecting a member originally elected to provide a special qualification or qualifications as teacher or registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta or both, the vote cast must be in favour of a candidate who possesses the particular qualification or either of such qualifications, as the case may be.

3. He shall vote by placing in the proper column of the voting paper a single mark X (and no other mark) opposite to the name or names of the candidate or candidates (not exceeding the number of members to be elected) whom he prefers. A vote recorded otherwise than on the voting paper shall be invalid.

The voting paper shall be invalid if the mark X is placed opposite to the name of more candidates than are to be elected, or if the mark denoting any vote is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate such vote is intended to apply or if more votes than one are recorded in favour of a single candidate.

4. Each qualified elector shall sign the requisite declaration giving full particulars required on the identification envelope, place the voting paper in this envelope, close it and return it in the manner prescribed in instruction 6. Without such signature and entry the identification envelope as also the enclosed voting paper shall be invalid.

5. A voting paper on which the voter has placed any mark whereby he may be afterwards identified shall be invalid.

6. Each voting paper enclosed in the relative identification envelope shall singly and separately be delivered personally (a voting paper sent by a peon or any other messenger will be rejected) or sent by post to the Returning Officer at the office of the Council at.....
..... The date appointed for the commencement (to be specified separately for each electorate) of the counting of votes is Agreement.

Memorandum of agreement made this eleventh day of February 1935 between "The Kalachand Shrine Improvement Society, Ltd.," registered under the Societies Registration Act, XXI of 1860, and having its registered office in Chittagong (hereinafter called the Society) of the one part and the Secretary of State for India in Council (hereinafter called the Secretary of State) of the other part.

Whereas for the purpose of the improvement of the said shrine by supplying good drinking water and by constructing houses and by making other sanitary arrangements for pilgrims assembled there, the Society has applied to the Government of Bengal for the acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, of the piece or parcel

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land and buildings as it may think proper.

(i) Should the said Government sell the land with the buildings the said Government after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale shall pay the proceeds to the Society.

HOME DEPARTMENT.NOTIFICATION.*POLICE.

Simla, the 2nd July 1935.

No. F. 114/24/35.—His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India has been pleased to confer the Indian Police Medal on the following officers:—

Name of officer and rank and statement of services for which the decoration has been conferred.

BENGAL.

(1) Thomas Fulton, Acting Station Officer, Calcutta Fire Brigade.—Mr. Fulton attended a fire in a house at Calcutta at 3-32 a.m. on 4th May 1935. The premises involved comprised a range of double and single storied buildings divided into sections in which a very large quantity of celluloid films were stored. The premises were blazing furiously and to prevent the fire spreading this officer proceeded to get a line of hose to work from the roof. While thus engaged he heard cries for help which he located behind a substantially built wooden partition. He, with assistance, broke down this partition and after traversing a passage about 10 feet wide in spite of the fact that on both sides of this passage were stores of very inflammable films and also a considerable quantity of furniture on fire, discovered a man lying on a table about twenty feet from the partition and near the end of a cul-de-sac about ninety feet long. The table too was actually on fire and also the film stores immediately adjoining. The man was severely burned and this officer picked him up, carried him to the partition and handed him out to a Fire Brigade Jemadar. He was then carried to the Salvation Army Quarters on the opposite side of the road. Mr. Fulton rendered first-aid and sent the injured man to Hospital where unfortunately he died later from shock. There was considerable danger of an explosion of films and the officer's line of retreat might have been closed as the rescue was effected in the immediate proximity of a large stock of films which were actually on fire. But for his removal by this officer the injured man would have been burned to death in the cul-de-sac.

(2) Maulvi Syed Ali Irtaza, Sub-Inspector of Police.—On receipt of information of a projected dacoity near Ujirpur village in the jurisdiction of Damurhuda police station in the district of Nadia, a police party in charge of a Circle Inspector proceeded on the night of the 7th April 1935 to the village. While rounding up the gang, which had been caught in the act of committing a house dacoity, probationary Sub-Inspector Syed Ali Irtaza seized a dacoit lurking in a dark corner of the compound surrounding the house. The dacoit, who was subsequently identified as a dangerous criminal, endeavoured to escape by striking the Sub-Inspector on the head with a plough-share, by throttling him, by biting his right cheek and by causing injuries to other parts of his body. The Sub-Inspector was seriously injured on the head and elsewhere but retained his grip on the dacoit till his cries attracted other members of the police party to his assistance. The Sub-Inspector on this occasion displayed courage of a high degree and a spirit of devotion to duty which merit recognition.

(3) Deodutt Tewary, Constable.—Constable Deodutt Tewary received information that a notorious externed Goonda had returned to Calcutta and was likely to be found in the locality of Sova Bazar.

On the afternoon of the 24th March 1935, he proceeded in that direction and found the Goonda in Nanda Ram Sen Street. As he was about to arrest him, the latter produced a large knife with which he stabbed the Constable on his right arm. In spite of this, the Constable grappled with the man and managed to hold him until a Traffic Police Constable came to his assistance when the Goonda was secured and taken away under arrest. He is well known to be a man of desperate character with many previous convictions.

This Constable has an extremely good record during his 10 years' service with the Calcutta Police and his courage on this occasion is in keeping with his previous conduct which has earned him numerous rewards.

A.B.—These awards are for gallantry under regulation (d) (i) of the Regulations governing the grant of the Indian Police Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowances admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

A Test Examination of private candidates for permission to appear at the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University to be held in March 1936, will be held in the Senate Hall, Calcutta, or at any other place, which may be notified hereafter from Monday, the 18th November 1935, according to the programme annexed hereto.

2. Private candidates are those who have not attended any school, recognised or unrecognised, imparting general education for at least one year previous to the Matriculation Examination.

3. Private candidates are broadly divided into two groups, viz.—

(A) Candidates coming from within the territorial jurisdiction of the Calcutta University.

(B) Candidates coming from outside the territorial jurisdiction of the Calcutta University.

(N.B.—Natives of provinces other than Bengal and Assam residing in any district of the Presidency Division including Calcutta will be classed into B group and as such will be liable to fulfil all conditions for B group candidates. If, however, they can produce a transfer certificate from a school within the Presidency Division they will be classed into A group. Similarly candidates who are Bengalis by birth but have been pupils in schools over which the Calcutta University has no control or have once appeared at an examination equivalent to its Matriculation Examination held by some other University or Examination Board will fall under B group.)

4. Each of these groups is again subdivided into the following four classes:—

(i) Candidates who once read at schools but since leaving them will have been out of school for at least one year up till 1st March 1936.

(ii) Candidates who have never read at any school.

(iii) Bona-fide teachers employed at schools recognised by any University or any Board of Secondary Education.

(iv) Teachers employed in other schools, e.g., Primary Schools, Middle Schools, Junior Madrasahs, etc.

5. Every candidate under class (i) of rule 4 must produce—

(a) A transfer certificate (bearing the school stamp) from the school in which he last read or the admit card if he failed at the last or any previous Matriculation Examination or the Test Examination held by the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division.

(b) A certificate of non-attendance in any school for at least one year previous to 1st March 1936 and good conduct and satisfactory progress in studies during such period. This certificate must be signed or countersigned by a gazetted Government officer, who should attach his official seal and designation to his name.

6. Every candidate under class (ii) of rule 4 must produce:—

(a) An affidavit sworn by his father before a competent authority of his own district or of the district where he is at present residing declaring that the candidate has never read at any school, recognised or unrecognised, his date of birth and age on 1st March 1936.

(b) A certificate duly signed or countersigned by a respectable gentleman that he prosecuted a regular course of studies and has been subject to proper discipline.

(c) A certificate duly signed or countersigned by a gazetted Government officer in Bengal to the effect that he did not join any recognised or unrecognised school since his boyhood.

(N.B.—If the father of the candidate be not living, the affidavit will be sworn by the legal guardian of the candidate, who should declare his relationship with the candidate in the affidavit.)

7. Candidates under class (iii) are exempt from appearing at the Test Examination. They should apply to the Registrar, Calcutta University, for necessary permission in accordance with the procedure laid down in his Notification No. 283/OUP, dated 15th May 1935.

8. Besides fulfilling the appropriate conditions as laid down for the foregoing three classes a candidate under class (iv) of rule 4 must produce a certificate of employment duly signed or countersigned by the District Inspector of Schools of the district.

9. Rules 5 to 8 are equally applicable to both A group and B group candidates according as they are classed. B group candidates (vide rule 3) without exception shall in addition produce (i) necessary permission from the University of Calcutta commonly called migration certificate in terms of its circular No. S/272/O.U.Pri., dated the 16th June 1934, published at page 938, Part IB of the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 19th July 1934, and (ii) a certificate duly signed or countersigned by a gazetted Government officer in Bengal to the effect that he will have completed one year's residence in the Presidency Division on the 1st March 1936. B group candidates who have never read in any school must produce all the documents mentioned in rule 6 (a) (b) (c) as well as the certificate mentioned in (ii) of this paragraph.

10. Every candidate must attach to his application a copy of the chalan showing the deposit of the prescribed fee at a treasury or sub-treasury in Bengal. (See also rule 17.)

11. No candidate under "group A" (i.e., Bengali or Assamese), whose father or guardian is not a native or a permanent resident of or permanently employed in any district of the Presidency Division including Calcutta, will be admitted to the Test Examination to be held by or under orders of the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division.

12. A student, who failed to pass the annual examination for promotion to class X at the end of the year 1934 and then left school, will, in no circumstances, be allowed to appear at the Test Examination of 1935. But a student who failed to pass the Matriculation Examination held in March 1935 will be admitted to the ensuing Test Examination.

The registered medical practitioner should give his registration number for his identification.

15. (a) No private candidate will be admitted to the Test Examination who is not identified to the satisfaction of the Superintendent at the Examination Hall during the pendency of the examination in compulsory subjects by a Government servant who is not in the inferior service or by a member of the staff of any recognised college or high school.

(b) The name and address of the identifier must be specified in the application. To avoid rush of work, identification will be held in batches and the identifier of each candidate must be prepared to stay as long as he is required by the Superintendent. He must also be prepared to come on any of the first two days if required by the Centre Superintendent. The identifier's signature should also be given in the application form. In his unavoidable absence the Superintendent may use his own discretion in accepting a substitute.

Page 35—Rule 75.—Delete clause (b) of rule 75 and for the figures and letter “75 (a)” substitute the figures “75.”

Page 28.—Insert the following as rule 53A:—

Attachment of pay for debt.

(vide section 60 (I) of the Civil Procedure Code.)

53A. I. The pay of a Government servant while on duty is exempt from attachment for debt to the extent of—

(i) the whole of pay, where it does not exceed forty rupees monthly;

- (ii) forty rupees monthly, when the pay exceeds forty rupees and does not exceed eighty rupees monthly; and
(iii) one moiety of the pay in any other case.

Provided that where a decree-holder is a society registered or deemed to be registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912, and the judgment-debtor is a member of the society, the provisions of sub-clauses (i) and (ii) shall be construed as if the word "twenty" were substituted for the word "forty" wherever it occurs and the word "forty" for the word "eighty."

II. Leave salary, if less than pay, is wholly exempt from attachment, but leave salary which is equal to pay is liable to attachment to the same extent as pay while on duty.

Note 1.—Compensatory allowances are not included in the term "pay" for the purpose of this rule and should be treated as exempt from attachment by a Civil Court. Exchange Compensation allowance is included.

Note 2.—The maximum pay attachable by a Civil Court is the pay earned and not what remains after satisfying any debts due to Government on account of advances taken under rule.

Note 3.—Subscriptions to funds recognised by Government, instalments in repayment of advances from the General Provident Fund and recoveries of income-tax, deductions for which appear in the pay bill, should be excluded from the aggregate pay for the purpose of attachment by a Civil Court.

Note 4.—Sterling Overseas Pay, or that portion of leave salary which is based on Sterling Overseas Pay, not being payable in British India, is not liable to attachment by a Court of Law in India as part of pay or leave salary of a public officer and cannot be taken into account in assessing the amount which is liable to such attachment.

Note 5.—Cases may occur in which the judgment-debtor does not sign the acquittance roll and intentionally allows his pay to remain undischarged; or the judgment-debtor, being a gazetted officer, or not being a gazetted officer but being permitted to draw his pay on a separate pay bill, may refrain from preparing his pay bill and drawing his pay regularly in order to evade payment on account of an attachment order issued by a Court of Law. In such circumstances the head of the office or, in the case of a gazetted officer or of an officer treated in this respect like a gazetted officer, the Administrative Officer of the Department concerned may draw the pay of the judgment-debtor in satisfaction of the attachment order subject to the restrictions laid down in the main rule and remit the amount to the Court concerned. The amount of the pay drawn should be charged in the accounts, the particulars of the attachment order being cited in the acquittance roll or the pay bill, as the case may be, as an authority for the charge and the Court's receipts for the amount should be filed with the attachment register.

[This Forecast deals with estimates of areas only. Estimates of outturn are dealt with in the Final forecast.]

Area in 1935.—The estimated area of jute in the three provinces is 1,858,200 acres, a decrease of 752,900 acres, or about 28·83 per cent. as compared with the revised total for 1934.

The consolidated figures are as follows:—

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF BENGAL, 1935.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1932-33, the area under jute in Bengal to which this forecast relates, represents some 88·0 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

The Preliminary Forecast deals only with the estimates of area sown and the condition of the crop at the time of publication of the forecast. The estimates of area are based on information received through the Collectors from the Revenue staff; also from the Panchayets and Agricultural Officers.

Revision of Area for 1934.—In 1934 the forecasted area was 2,186,100 acres. This has since been revised to 2,288,700 acres.

Area sown in 1935.—In Bengal, returns for the present season show a total area of 1,613,500 acres, a decrease of 675,200 acres, or about 29·5 per cent. as compared with the revised figures for 1934. The decrease in area is attributed partly to adverse weather conditions and partly to the intensive restriction campaign.

Character of the season.—The weather was, on the whole, unfavourable both for preparatory tillage and for sowings in East and North Bengal. As a result sowings were generally late. In East Bengal, however, the germination was good and subsequent conditions improved the prospects of the crop. In North Bengal, on the other hand, the progress of the crop was not satisfactory, owing to drought in some areas and to excessive rain in others. Elsewhere the growth was satisfactory. In West Bengal drought affected early sowings and growth was not uniform. Later on favourable weather enabled further sowings to be made and the late crop is thriving generally.

Present state of the crop.—With the exceptions mentioned above, the present condition is good in East Bengal and satisfactory in North and West Bengal.

Stock.—Collectors report that stocks in the hands of cultivators are small.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal (offg.).

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BIHAR AND ORISSA.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF BIHAR AND ORISSA, 1935.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1932-33, the area under jute in Bihar and Orissa to which this Forecast relates represents about 7·4 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

The present forecast deals only with the estimated area sown. It gives also a general survey of prospects, but makes no reference to the probable outturn either in percentage figures or in bales.

2. Acreage.—I estimate the area sown during the current and four preceding years in round numbers as follows:—

Year.				Acreage.
1931	148,000
1932	170,000 (Revised).
1933	192,100
1934	173,800 (Revised).
1935	142,000

3. Weather conditions.—In March light rain fell in the Santal Parganas, Cuttack and Balasore. There was no rain in the rest of the jute districts. The fall was below normal. In April light to moderate rain fell in Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Purnea, the Santal Parganas, Cuttack and Balasore except Champaran and Bhagalpur where there was no rain. The fall was below the normal everywhere except Cuttack and Balasore. In May light rain fell in all the jute districts. The fall was below the normal everywhere. In June rain fell in all the jute-growing districts. The fall was light everywhere. The weather conditions are reported to be unfavourable in the important district of Purnea and also in Champaran. Sowings are still going on in the Santal Parganas, Cuttack and Balasore.

4. District returns.—Last year's area under jute has been finally estimated at 173,800 acres. The total area under jute this year is estimated by District Officers in round number at 142,000 acres. The decrease in area is marked in Purnea and also in Bhagalpur and Darbhanga and is due to slump in jute market in the preceding year and to propaganda for jute restriction scheme in Purnea and to scarcity of rainfall and increase in area under sugarcane in the remaining two districts.

5. Condition and prospects.—The condition of the crop is, on the whole, fair.

6. General.—The quantity of jute which remains in the jute districts from the crops of 1934 is reported to be small.

The statement below compares the estimated area under jute in this province this year with the preliminary and final figures of last year:—

Remarks by District Officers.

		Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.
Tribut	Champanan	2,263,194	1,430,200	3,100	2,500	2,300	Little in Sadar	First week of April to middle of April.	The weather and rainfall were not favourable. The present condition of the crop is poor. The sowings were normal and have been completed. The crop is expected to be same as last year in Bettiah and probably inferior to last year in Sadar.
	Muzaffarpur	1,934,630	1,627,000	3,200	2,720	4,140	No jute	Normal in Sadar and Sitamarhi but late in Hajipur.	Jute crop requires immediate and sufficient rains.
	Darbhanga	2,142,720	1,677,500	1,600	835	310	Nil	Latter part of May. (Normal).	Decrease in area is due to scanty rainfall and to increase in acreage under sugarcane.
	Bhagalpur	2,661,914	1,684,100	3,200	4,974	3,519	Little	Last week of May	The present condition of the crop is poor due to scarcity of rain.
	Purnea	3,141,926	1,694,400	165,100	136,711	117,578	Do.	May	The weather and rainfall have been unfavourable for the growth of jute crop. The present condition appears to be fair. Sowings have been completed and the outturn is expected to be the same as last year or less than that. The decrease in area under jute is due to slump in jute market and the propaganda of jute restriction scheme in Purnea district.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ASSAM.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF ASSAM, 1935.

[NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1932-33, the area under jute in Assam represents some 5.5 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

1. Season.—The weather at sowing time was not favourable owing to insufficient rainfall almost in all the important jute-growing districts of the province. Further incessant rains also hampered the growth of the crop to some extent. Insect in Kamrup, hailstorm in Nowgong and local flood in low lands in Sibsagar also caused slight damage. The present prospects of the crop are not quite satisfactory and hence the outturn is anticipated to be below the normal.

2. Area sown.—The total area under jute as estimated by the Deputy Commissioners is 102,700 acres against 148,600 acres (revised) of last year. There is a decrease in area in all the important jute-growing districts due to restriction scheme, the net decrease over last year's actual figure being 45,900 acres.

3. Stock.—According to the reports of the Deputy Commissioners very little jute remains in stock from the crop of last year.

Cachar (plains) ..	200	200	200	None ..	Middle of April. Normal.	The weather has been generally favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop and the outturn is likely to be better than that of last year.
Sylhet ..	15,000	8,600	7,700	..	900	Little ..	Ditto ..	The decrease in area is due to jute restriction propaganda and also to unfavourable weather condition which was not quite satisfactory at sowing time but has since improved. The present condition of the crop is on the whole fair.
Goalpara ..	60,000	40,400	27,700	..	12,700	A little quantity remains.	First part of April. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to jute restriction propaganda and also to unfavourable weather condition at sowing time. Brought in March and April followed by incessant rains hampered the growth of the crop. The present prospects of the crop are, however, generally fair but the outturn is expected to be worse than last year.
Kamrup ..	28,000	34,600	24,100	..	10,500	None ..	Early April. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to jute restriction propaganda and also to unfavourable weather condition at sowing time. Afterwards the growth of the crop was hampered by too much rains. Insects too have caused some damage in places. The present condition of the crop is generally fair but the outturn is expected to be below normal.
Darrang ..	12,600	12,100	7,400	..	4,700	Little ..	Beginning of April. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to jute restriction propaganda and also to unfavourable weather condition at sowing time, specially in the Sadar subdivision, due to inadequate rainfall. Later on, there was heavy rainfall which retarded the growth of the crop. The present condition of the crop is not quite satisfactory and the outturn is expected to fall below normal.
Nowgong ..	50,000	48,100	31,000	..	17,100	Do. ..	Middle of March. Normal.	The decrease in area is due partly to restriction scheme and partly to low price of jute. The weather has been generally favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop and the outturn is anticipated to be better than last year. Heavy storm caused slight damage in places.
Sibsagar ..	400	300	300	None ..	Middle of April. Normal.	The weather has been favourable on the whole, for the cultivation and growth of the crop. The outturn is expected to be better than last year although local flood has slightly damaged the crop in some places.
Lakhimpur ..	1,000	300	300	Do. ..	First week of April. Normal.	The weather has been favourable for the crop and a normal outturn is expected.
Garo Hills (plains)	5,000	4,000	4,000	Do. ..	Middle of April. A bit late.	The weather has not been favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop. The present condition of the crop is not satisfactory and the outturn is expected to be worse than last year.

The Report of the Director of Public Health, Bengal, for the year 1933.

Vital statistics.—The total number of births and deaths recorded during the year 1933 was 1,473,944 and 1,197,885, respectively.

Births, therefore, exceeded deaths by 276,059, as against an excess of 306,115 in 1932. The number of births was greatly in excess of the average for the last ten years, but the number of deaths also was the highest recorded since 1924; increased infant mortality was largely responsible for this as no fewer than 294,975 deaths occurred amongst infants under the age of 1; this number exceeded the average of the previous nine years by 52,408 and last year's figure by 57,382. The rate of infant mortality per 1,000 births increased from 178.9 in 1932 to 200.1 in 1933.

54,462 more males were born than females, or 107 males to every 100 females: this is slightly lower than the average of the last ten years, which was 108.

The rate of natural increase (5.5 per mille) was again lower than in any other province, the next lowest being 8.77, while the infant mortality was the highest.

Calcutta and Jessore both again showed an excess of deaths over births, viz., 7.7 and 4 per mille, respectively, against 4.3 and 5.9 per mille in 1932.

Cholera.—There were 29,242 deaths from cholera in 1933 against 33,910 in 1932; this represents a decrease of 14.3 per cent. as compared with the previous year and of 60 per cent. on the average of the quinquennium. 2,268 deaths occurred in the towns and 26,974 in rural areas.

Mortality was higher than in any other province except Assam.

The death rate per mille was highest in Tippera (1.4 per mille), Dacca (1.3) and Bakarganj (1.2) against a provincial rate of .6. In every district the rate for the year was below its average for the decade 1923-32, except in Tippera, where it was equal to the average. No deaths were reported in Darjeeling district.

The number of inoculations performed during the year was 1,036,643 against 952,105 in 1932.

Small-pox.—The mortality from this cause showed a considerable increase, the number rising from 7,910 to 15,426 and every district being affected. Even so, however, this represents a reduction from the average of the previous five years from .4 to .3 per mille of the population.

The death rate was highest from March to May, but it was lower in every month except February than in the corresponding months of the previous decade. In Calcutta the incidence was heaviest, 3.49 per mille against the previous ten years' average of 1.05; the outbreak in Calcutta was mainly responsible for the abnormal increase in the urban mortality from 1,194 in 1932 to 5,498 in the year under review.

There were also a great increase in the mortality amongst young children, 808 infants under the age of one year and 915 children between one and ten years dying of small-pox as against 170 and 398, respectively.

Four provinces in India returned a higher percentage of mortality.

The number of persons vaccinated fell from 6,670,134 to 6,637,097.

The average cost of each successful case of vaccination stood at 1 anna 9 pies, the same figure as in the previous year, while the cost of manufacture of a grain of lymph was reduced from 1.11 pies to 1.4 pies.

Special attention is invited to the remarks in paragraph 91 of the Report on the efficacy of vaccination in preventing and combating this disease, which was responsible for 1.3 per cent. of the deaths in Bengal during 1933.

Malaria and Kala-azar.—Mortality from fevers rose from 691,513 in 1932 to 812,393 in 1933, the death rate being 16.3 per mille of population against 13.8 in 1932 and 14.4 during the last quinquennium. Malaria accounted for 413,922 and Kala-azar for 13,447 of these deaths, an increase over the previous year of 86,536 and 2,727, respectively. The death rate from malaria was heaviest in Nadia with 20.0 per mille, Rajshahi (18.9), Jessore (18.5), Malda (17.7), Murshidabad (14.9), Birbhum (14.5), Pabna (13.2) and Dinajpur (13.0). Every district except Khulna, 24-Parganas and Calcutta showed an increase over the previous year, the increase being most noticeable in Rangpur (from 7.8 to 12.5) and Pabna (from 9.4 to 13.2). The fever indices fell in two districts only (Calcutta and the 24-Parganas). The number of new Kala-azar cases admitted for treatment increased from 105,840 in 1932 to 129,639 in 1933, the increase being greatest in Rajshahi, Jessore, Dinajpur, Rangpur and Darjeeling.

An important feature of this year was the experiment, initiated in certain areas of the Burdwan district, in the intensive treatment of the population with plasmochin and quinine. Particulars of the experiment, which aims at preventing the infection of mosquitoes with malaria germs and thus rendering their bites harmless, will be found in paragraph 84 of the Report; it was not, of course, possible to make any conclusive deductions from the results during the first year, but the results were encouraging and the effect of the experiment will be watched with keen interest.

Another departure was the free distribution of quinine in five highly malarious thanas in Bengal, to which reference is made in the same paragraph and which appears to have had beneficial results in the localities.

The threat to Calcutta from anopheles ludlowii continued to cause anxiety, and the seriousness of the position was more generally appreciated when it was realised that mosquitoes of this species had penetrated as near the city as the Salt Lake. Two additional survey units were sanctioned and the campaign was extended over larger areas around Calcutta. The measures taken during the year again averted the danger, but any relaxation of the campaign is likely to have most unfortunate results on the health of the city.

Respiratory diseases.—These diseases were responsible for 82,173 deaths in 1933 against 62,249 in 1932, representing death rates of 1·6 and 1·2 per mille, respectively. Calcutta was highest with 8·5 deaths per mille, Jalpaiguri (5·1), Howrah and Hooghly (3·7) and Darjeeling (3·5). In every district the death rate was higher than in the previous year. 37,337 of the deaths were from pneumonia as compared with 28,158 in 1932, and all the districts except Howrah and Birbhum shared in this increase.

Phtthisis accounted for 14,802 deaths, an increase of 3,001 over the previous year; Calcutta returned the highest death rate (2·17 per mille) followed by Darjeeling (1·35) and there was an increase in all but five districts.

Fairs and festivals.—The Public Health Department and the authorities concerned are to be congratulated on the satisfactory arrangements which they made to prevent the outbreak of infectious diseases at the Ganga Sagar and the Nangalbundh melas. There were two imported cases of small-pox at the former, while there were sixteen cases of cholera, one of which proved fatal, among the lakh of visitors to Nangalbundh, although cholera had already been prevalent in the locality.

Sanitary works and water-supply.—Rs. 52,38,472 or 46·3 per cent. of the total income of municipalities were spent on sanitary works during the year against Rs. 58,32,213 or 47·6 during 1932. Rs. 22,64,196 were spent on conservancy, Rs. 14,60,058 on water-supply and Rs. 7,09,310 on drainage; the average expenditure on sanitary works generally per head of population was Rs. 2·4·2½, a decrease of annas 4 from the previous year.

In rural areas the district boards maintained their expenditure on sanitary works and water-supply at much the same level as in previous years: 3 per cent. of their income was spent on water-supply, ·1 on drainage and 8·4 on sanitation against the corresponding figures of 3·5, ·07 and 8·2 in the previous year.

Of the total expenditure of Rs. 88,62,000 union boards spent Rs. 38,88,000 in carrying out the various works of public utility contemplated by the Village Self-Government Act, Rs. 5,50,000 being devoted to water-supply and Rs. 1,32,000 to drainage and conservancy.

School hygiene.—Medical officers visited 183 schools and inspected 21,140 boys and 550 girls, as against 189 schools, 20,320 boys and 1,204 girls in the previous year. Their reports showed that 38·5 per cent. of the children were well nourished and 38·9 per cent. fairly nourished, while the remaining 22·6 per cent. were returned as ill-nourished; these figures show a welcome improvement on the returns of the previous year. 16 per cent. were found to be suffering from eye trouble and 6·3 per cent. from defective teeth. There was a large increase in the number of inspections carried out by rural sanitary inspectors, who visited 4,468 schools and examined 1,09,693 pupils. The corresponding figures for 1932 were 2,730 schools and 86,310 pupils.

Educational propaganda.—1,315 lectures and demonstrations were given during the year and were attended by 20½ lakhs of people, as against 18 lakhs, who attended the 1,300 lectures in 1932. The number of baby shows and health exhibitions, also, was slightly higher than in the previous year. The popularity of the lectures and cinematograph shows on sanitation and the increased demands for the services of the officers and material of the publicity section of the department amply justify the Ministry's faith in the value of this form of propaganda. The rural population are able to learn for themselves the recognised principles of hygiene and sanitation and to appreciate the immense benefits to be derived, with such small effort, from following them.

Any improvement in the sanitary conditions of the province as the result of this mass education must necessarily be gradual, but Government are confident that the interest aroused in this presentation of problems which so intimately affect the countryside must have an ever increasing influence upon the attitude of the public and lead in course of time to a more general application of simple health principles throughout the province.

Personal.—The Minister desires to express his appreciation of the good work and untiring efforts of all the officers of the department and, in particular, to acknowledge the services of Dr. Khambata, who continued to hold the post of Director of Public Health throughout the year.

By order of the Govt. of Bengal.

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

SUPPLEMENT.

Official Papers.

Report on Public Instruction in Bengal for the year 1933-34.

CHAPTER I.

General.

1. The year 1933-34 was a period of quiet and steady work in the Department of Education. The cloud of economic depression had not lifted from the province and the initiation or development of many useful measures was either prevented or retarded.

There was, in spite of this, a general increase in the number both of educational institutions and of pupils and (with one bitter exception) a very welcome abatement of terrorist activities.

2. (i) In accordance with the optional scheme framed by Government under the Rural Primary Education Act, 1930, steps were taken during the year under review to constitute District School Boards in the seven districts of Birbhum, Dinajpur, Bogra, Pabna, Mymensingh, Noakhali and Chittagong. These School Boards which will relieve district boards of their educational work will begin work from the beginning of the year 1934-35. These seven districts are to be congratulated on their wisdom, and it is hoped that the initial experience gained by these purely educational boards will prove of great use when the Act is in full swing. Other district boards are now considering the scheme with a view to its adoption.

(ii) All preliminaries in connection with the introduction of free and compulsory primary education in Ward No. IX of the city of Calcutta were settled during the year by the Corporation of Calcutta, who have also sanctioned the appointment of an Attendance Officer. The scheme, which does not involve the imposition of any education cess or the receipt of any aid from provincial revenues, will begin to operate from 1934-35.

(iii) The 10 per cent. cut in the salaries of officers was reduced to 5 per cent. in this year, and the relief thus afforded proved very welcome.

(iv) The reduced rates of grants paid to non-Government colleges and secondary schools continued.

(v) A revised syllabus in physical education was introduced in primary and secondary schools. Additional emphasis was laid on physical culture by the introduction of games and folk dances on a larger scale and by the deputation of a larger number of Sub-Inspectors of Schools and teachers to physical training classes.

(vi) The zenana system of education was entirely abolished.

(vii) Many school buildings, particularly those in the district of Darjeeling, were seriously damaged by the violent earthquake which took place on 15th January 1934.

(viii) An important step forward was taken by the District Board of Jalpaiguri in the year under report, who issued a declaration making all Board Primary Schools in the district free. The District Board of Murshidabad also made primary education free in some of the schools managed by them.

(ix) Various measures were devised and experiments undertaken to endeavour to improve discipline and to bring teachers and pupils into closer touch with each other.

3. (i) So far as educational progress can be assessed by figures, the following tables will show what has been achieved since the preceding year:—

CHAPTER II.

Administration and Control.

The authorities which exercise in varying degrees administrative, academic or financial control over educational institutions in the Presidency are the Education Department of Government, the two Universities of Calcutta and Dacca, the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca, district boards and municipalities and various religious and philanthropic societies—both Indian and non-Indian. The control of general education vests ultimately in the Minister of Education who is an elected member of the Legislative Council.* Throughout the period under review the Hon'ble Mr. Khwaja Nazimuddin, C.I.E., was in charge of the Education portfolio. European Education was, as previously, in charge of a Member of His Excellency the Governor's Executive Council.

2. The Education Department, Bengal, is composed of (a) members of the—

- (i) Indian Educational Service (Men's and Women's Branches);
- (ii) Bengal Educational Service (Men's and Women's Branches);
- and

(iii) Subordinate Educational Service, and

(b) officers holding—

(iv) special posts; and

(c) posts not included in any of the services mentioned above.

*Medical schools and colleges are under the control of the Local-Self Government Department, and agricultural, technical and industrial (except engineering) institutions of the Agriculture and Industries Department.

(i) Indian Educational Service.—Recruitment to this service (which was made by the Secretary of State) has ceased for some years, and the Provincially Recruited Service which is to take its place was not formally constituted until after the close of the year 1933-34. The majority of the posts in this service are held now by Provincial Service officers or by officers recruited on special rates of pay.

(ii) Bengal Educational Service.—The Bengal Educational Service comprises the majority of the superior posts in the department, whether teaching or inspecting. There was a slight reduction—202 as against 208—of the permanent posts in this service, due to the reduction in status of some posts and other causes. The Women's Branch of 20 strong remained at that figure.

(iii) Subordinate Educational Service.—At the beginning of the year, appointments in the Subordinate Educational Service numbered 2,154. During the period under review, some posts were abolished and others created, and the total at the end of the year was 2,140 divided into various categories of service as shown below:—

	1st April 1933.	31st March 1934.
Teaching ..	1,342	1,340	(including 85 posts held in abeyance or lying vacant).
Inspecting ..	314	314
Miscellaneous	96	90	(including 4 posts held in abeyance).
Ministerial ..	402	396
Total ..	2,154	2,140

Besides the above there were certain other temporary posts (either whole or part-time) in existence on 31st March 1934 which are enumerated below:—

Whole-time posts—

Lecturers	10
Physical Instructress, Bothuno College and Collegiate School	1
Teachers of the School Final Classes attached to Darjeeling Government High School	3
Miscellaneous	19
Clerks	10

Part-time posts

Lecturers	7
Drawing Master, David Hare Training College	1
Total	51

(iv) Special posts.—Besides the regularly constituted services there are a number of posts classed as special, or not included in the classified lists. These numbered 40—as in the preceding year.

The post of Special Officer for Primary Education, Bengal, which was created towards the close of the preceding year, was held by Mr. J. M. Sen, a member of the Bengal Educational Service from 14th March 1934 in place of Dr. W. A. Jenkins of the Indian Educational Service who went on leave.

3. Direction.—The Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, is the executive head of the Education Department of the Government of Bengal. During the year under review Mr. J. M. Bottomley held this post, and was assisted in his work by Mr. R. Wolfenden, Assistant Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, Khan Bahadur Mr. M. Maula Baksh, Assistant Director of Public Instruction for Muhammadan Education, Mr. J. Buchanan, Physical Director, and Mr. J. M. Sen, Special Officer for Primary Education (from the 14th March 1934)

4. Inspection.—The subjoined table indicates the strength of the departmental inspecting staff as it stood on 31st March 1934.

Inspecting staff.	Presi- dency Divi- sion.	Burdwan Divi- sion.	Dacca Divi- sion.	Raj- shahi Divi- sion.	Chitta- gong Divi- sion.	Total.

Assistant Sub-Inspectors of Schools ..	4	6	10
Inspectresses of Schools ..	1		1			2
Assistant Inspectresses of Schools ..	6		6			12
Inspector of European Schools, Bengal ..	1					1

(a) Includes the post of a Second Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, which has been kept in abeyance.

(b) Includes the post of a Second Inspector of Schools, Burdwan Division, which has been kept in abeyance.

(c) Excludes the post of District Inspector of Schools, Chittagong Hill Tracts, which has been temporarily reduced to the status of a Subordinate Educational Service post.

5. Extra-departmental agencies.—Difficulties of communication, the numerical weakness of the Departmental Inspectorate, and the multiplicity of educational institutions make proper control of them an exceedingly difficult matter, and I have to acknowledge with gratitude the great help which the department has received from Magistrates and other Executive Officers in the districts. Not only do they act as presidents of innumerable school committees, but by means of conferences, personal inspection, advice and suggestions they render invaluable aid to the cause of education.

More especially in the two districts in Bengal, Midnapore and Chittagong, which have been most deeply affected by terrorist propaganda, have District Magistrates worked unceasingly to produce in the student population a healthier outlook. The department is also indebted to the chairmen of district and municipal boards for the interest they have evinced for the spread and improvement of primary education in rural and urban areas respectively. The various missionary societies—Indian and non-Indian, and other organisations like the Nari Siksha Samity, the Brahmo Samajes and the Society for the Improvement of Education among the Backward Classes—deserve special mention for their unabated zeal in spite of the present economic depression for the spread of education, particularly among girls and women and the members of backward communities. The railway administrations of the presidency have done valuable work by maintaining a number of schools at important centres, which though established chiefly for the education of the children of railway employees are attended by the children of all communities.

CHAPTER III.

University and college education.

1. Calcutta University.—Sir Hasan Subhawardy, M.A., O.B.E., M.D., etc., was Vice-Chancellor of Calcutta University during the period under review. In December 1933 Dr. Harendra Goomar Mookerjee, M.A., Ph.D., offered to the University a further sum of Rs. 1,00,000 in 3½ per cent. Government promissory notes for creating an endowment in memory of his mother. The late Rai Bahadur Beharilal Mitra by his will left to the University a sum of Rs. 4,000 per month for the advancement of Hindu female education and a committee was appointed by the Senate in April 1933 to frame a scheme for carrying out the wish of the testator. The subjoined table will show that the numbers of students increased in all classes except the M.Sc. Class in which there was a slight fall in numbers:—

	1932-33.	1933-34.
In M. A. Classes	894	1,115
In M. Sc. Classes	247	239
Undergraduate students (in Commerce Classes)	108	154
Women students	52	58

2. Dacca University.—Mr. G. H. Langley, I.E.S., was the Vice-Chancellor of the University during the period. The University registered 984 students on 31st March 1934; of this number 531 (including 35 women) were reading for Arts degrees, 215 (including a woman) for Science degrees, while 171 were in the Law Department, 44 in the Commerce Department and 23 (including one woman) engaged in Research. The Halls (including the women's hostel) had 374 students in residence on 31st March 1934.

3. Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca.—The Dacca Board has completed the 14th year of its existence. Khan Bahadur Abdur Rahman Khan, who had ably worked as Secretary of the Board since January 1926, having been transferred to the Inspectorate in August 1933, Khan Sahib Abdul Khaliq was appointed to succeed him. The cost of maintaining the Board during the period under review was Rs. 43,515, of which Rs. 8,244 was met from provincial revenues. Excluding Islamic intermediate colleges the number of intermediate colleges under the supervision of the Board rose from 4 to 5, the increase being due to the inclusion of the Kamrunnessa Intermediate College for Girls, Dacca, which was recognised with retrospective effect by the Dacca Board in May 1934. Two of these colleges, viz., Dacca Intermediate College and Eden Intermediate College for Girls, are maintained by Government; the Jagannath Intermediate College receives aid from the department.

4. Colleges.—The total number of arts colleges in the Presidency remained unchanged during the year; 45 of these were for men and 6 for women, their roll strength increased from 20,867 to 23,023, and the cost of maintenance rose from Rs. 34,67,254 to Rs. 36,18,352. Of the men's colleges, 10 (including the Islamic intermediate colleges) were, as previously, maintained by Government, 19 received aid from the department and 16 were unaided. The following tables give comparative figures of enrolment and maintenance charges of arts colleges for men for the last two years:—

					Number of students.
					1932-33.	1933-34.
Hindus	17,000	18,878
Moslems	2,818	2,990
Others	451	559
Total				..	20,359	22,427

Expenditure on arts colleges for men—					1932-33.	1933-34.
					Rs.	Rs.
Provincial revenues	11,55,491	12,05,403
From district and municipal funds	2,575	5,133
From fees	18,75,458	19,61,306
From other sources	2,91,350	2,96,109
Total				..	33,24,883	34,68,041

As in previous years a sum of Rs. 2,27,960 was distributed by Government in the period under review in giving grants to non-Government arts colleges. Financial stringency was responsible for the continuance of the 10 per cent. cut on all grants and the inability of Government to give the usual grant of Rs. 1,29,000 which in normal years is distributed among non-Government arts colleges for the improvement of libraries, laboratories and gymnasia.

5. Government colleges.—The number of students reading in Government arts colleges for men rose from 3,205 to 3,508 during the period. The cost of maintaining these colleges rose from Rs. 13,36,032 to Rs. 14,10,330, of which Rs. 9,90,869 was borne by provincial revenues. The average annual cost of educating a student was Rs. 402, of which Rs. 282 was met from provincial revenues. After careful consideration of the recommendations of the Bengal Retrenchment Committee, Government prescribed specifically for the first time, last year, the number of hours which the principals, professors and lecturers of Government colleges should ordinarily devote to teaching work each week. A system of tutorial supervision over students by college teachers was introduced during the year in all first grade Government arts colleges with a view to bringing the students more closely into personal touch with their tutors. There are practical difficulties in the way of realisation of this most desirable object, but the results reported are considered to be generally satisfactory.

The following table gives statistics relating to Government colleges for men:—

Government colleges for men.

*Islamic intermediate colleges maintained by Government are dealt with in Chapter X.

†Includes 117 post-graduate students.

Beyond the inevitable changes in the personnel of their staffs due to transfers, retirements and death, there is little of moment to relate in the life of Government colleges.

Founder's Day at Presidency College and the College Duty Fund annual meetings at Islamia College were celebrated in the presence of the usual distinguished gatherings.

At Sanskrit College there is an increasing amount of research work being done by outside students. Rajshahi celebrated its Diamond Jubilee with great pomp, and the scheme for the establishment of an agricultural institute in close connection with the college moved a little nearer completion. A recrudescence of terrorist activity in Chittagong forced the college to close for a short time towards the close of the year, but normal working was soon restored.

More than one college complained of inadequate staff, and so long as a principal is counted a part of the tutorial staff, there will never be a satisfactory way of evading difficulties caused by transfer.

6. Non-Government colleges.—Besides the colleges maintained by Government, there were 35 other arts colleges in the province; of these 19 received a regular monthly grant-in-aid from public revenues, and 16 were maintained entirely from private sources.

In the aided colleges the number of students rose from 9,478 to 10,218 and the cost of maintenance from Rs. 12,11,287 to Rs. 12,32,958. Rs. 2,06,490 of this amount being provided from provincial revenues. The Scottish Church College in Calcutta and the Brojomohan College in Barisal were the largest colleges with 1,389 and 1,294 students, respectively, and at the other end of the scale come the Islamic Intermediate College at Serajganj with 34 students and Victoria College at Narail in the Jessore district with 110 students.

In the unaided colleges the total number of students rose from 7,676 to 8,701 and the cost of maintaining them from Rs. 7,77,564 to Rs. 8,24,753. In these institutions the disparity in number is even more marked. Vidyasagar College, Calcutta, with 2,335 and St. Joseph's College, Darjeeling, with 4 students being the largest and smallest. The following table gives the enrolment for all the non-Government colleges—both aided and unaided:—

Name of college.		Number of students.

CHAPTER IV.

Secondary education.

1. The following table which includes figures relating to both boys and girls' schools (whether Indian or European) shows that the number both of institutions and pupils show an increase compared with the previous year:—

				Number of schools.
				1932-33.	1933-34.
High English schools	1,186	1,221
Middle English schools	1,873	1,889
Middle vernacular schools	62	60
Number of pupils	456,175	463,060
Cost of maintenance	Rs.	1,49,09,770	1,53,76,660

The only decline occurs in the case of middle vernacular schools.

Secondary education of Indian boys.—[The secondary education of Indian girls and of Europeans is dealt with in other chapters.]

2. Schools and pupils.—The total number of secondary schools for Indian boys rose in the year under review from 2,966 to 3,003. High English schools increased from 1,103 to 1,133 and middle English schools from 1,809 to 1,817; while middle vernacular schools declined from 54 to 53. Pupils reading in high schools rose from 264,084 to 268,706, but in middle English and middle vernacular schools the numbers fell from 157,643 and 3,788 to 157,391 and 3,591, respectively. The figures for pupils in 1933-34 include 440 girls reading in high English schools, 1,944 girls reading in middle English schools and 121 girls reading in middle vernacular schools.

3. Expenditure.—The total cost of maintaining secondary schools for Indian boys rose during the year under review from Rs. 1,22,96,193 to Rs. 1,26,59,618. Of the total expenditure Rs. 20,96,692 or 16·6 per cent. came from public funds and Rs. 105,62,926 or 83·4 per cent. from private sources as compared with Rs. 20,46,896 or 16·8 per cent. and Rs. 102,49,297 or 83·2 per cent., respectively, in the previous year. High English schools cost during the period Rs. 97,87,952, middle English schools Rs. 28,18,912 and middle vernacular schools Rs. 52,754; the corresponding amounts in the previous year were Rs. 94,56,310, Rs. 27,85,136 and Rs. 54,747, respectively. The expenditure on middle vernacular schools therefore decreased with the decline in their number during the year under report.

4. Manual instruction.—There is an astonishing lack of variety in the range of subjects taught in our secondary schools. Work in them is dominated by thoughts of the Matriculation Examination, and few have the wit to realise that what is done outside that somewhat narrow range is of vital importance in the intellectual and moral development of the child.

Fifty-eight schools of secondary status have opened classes in some form of handwork—carpentry, weaving, smithy work being the favourites—and agricultural scheme devised and sanctioned by Government in 1929 was in operation in 56 middle and high schools. The reports from these are varied; in too many it is apparent that apathy and lack of interest are fatally at work, although there are welcome and outstanding examples of schools where farm work is a real part of school life.

It is curious that school final classes which are conducted in seven Government high schools are not more popular. They provide very sound instruction in a course of Science deliberately framed. It leads to vocational training in professional institutions, and yet during the year there were only 74 pupils in them.

5. The number of pupils who appeared at the Matriculation Examination of the University of Calcutta, and at the similar school-leaving examination of the Dacca Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education was 20,441. Of these 12,743 passed. The figures for the preceding year were 18,435 and 12,140.

6. The principles regulating the distribution of Government grants remained unaltered. The reduction of 10 per cent. in their amounts coincided with a fall in that part of schools' income derived from private sources, and this double disability affected deeply both the efficiency and the morale of secondary schools. Rules regarding grants had to be relaxed, and the undignified scramble for pupils between rival institutions in contiguous areas was intensified. Loans from private individuals and from semi-public funds such as teachers' provident funds were resorted to, in order to start off a complete cessation of work, and miserably inadequate salaries, and forced contributions from teachers were the rule rather than the exception.

The lean years through which Bengal is passing have left a mark upon its schools and teachers which will be difficult to eradicate. Patient work will do much to curb the evils that have arisen, but no completely satisfactory solution of the problem of secondary education in Bengal can arrive until there is more unified control, much larger grants from public revenues, and complete agreement between the public and those responsible for the education of the province as to the necessity for a radical reorganisation and redistribution of its secondary schools.

CHAPTER V.

Primary education.

1. General statistics.—There were increases in both the number of schools and number of pupils. The following table gives figures for these and also for the cost of maintaining the schools:—

			1932-33.	1933-34.
Number of schools	62,710	64,320
Number of pupils	21,92,130	22,86,442
Cost	Rs. 81,81,700	80,22,674

Primary education of Indian boys.—[The primary education of Indian girls and of Europeans is dealt with in other chapters.]

2. Schools.—The number of primary schools for Indian boys rose during the year from 44,633 to 45,431; this increase was shared by the Presidency, Dacca and Rajshahi Divisions. The decrease of schools in the Burdwan Division is attributed to the efforts that were made towards amalgamation of the weaker schools. In the following table figures are given for each division of the Presidency separately:—

Division.	1933-34.						1932-33.
	Number of schools managed by Government.	Number of schools managed by district boards.	Number of schools managed by municipal boards.	Number of schools receiving aid from public funds.	Number of schools not receiving aid from public funds.	Total.	Total number of schools returned in the previous year.
Presidency Division (excluding Calcutta)	30	409	20	7,022	810	8,291	7,924
Calcutta	150	332	21	503	483
Burdwan Division ..	18	459	35	7,991	847	9,350	9,500
Dacca Division ..	12	1,298	22	9,661	1,547	12,540	12,153
Chittagong Division ..	8	564	30	5,130	652	6,384	6,438
Rajshahi Division ..	13	1,261	11	6,304	774	8,363	8,126
Total ..	81	3,911	268	36,440	4,651	45,131	44,633

The decrease in the number of schools managed by Government was due to the abolition of the practising school attached to one Guru Training School in the Burdwan Division.

3. Pupils.—On the 31st March 1934, primary schools for Indian boys were attended by 17,90,154 pupils (including 116,146 girls) as compared with 1,725,040 pupils (including 104,939 girls) in the preceding year. Pupils reading in primary schools for Indian boys, together with those reading in the primary classes of secondary schools, numbered 1,973,276 against 1,904,551 in the previous year, showing an increase of 68,725 pupils in the year under report. But the most deplorable fact in connection with primary education is that a very large proportion of the pupils, viz., approximately about 70 per cent., never reach Class IV or V, and many of those that read up to Class II or complete the lower primary course, soon lapse into illiteracy on account of inefficient teaching. Of the total male population of school-going age 50 per cent. were receiving primary education during the period under review.

4. Relative progress of Hindus and Muhammadans.—Classified according to communities, there were altogether 817,087 Hindu and 1,034,276 Muhammadan pupils reading in primary schools at the close of the year under report as compared with 740,369 and 969,413, respectively, in the previous year. The number of Hindu pupils increased by 76,718 and that of Muhammadan pupils by 64,863 in the course of the year. Of the total Hindu male population 7·2 per cent. and of the Muhammadan male population 7·3 per cent. were under instruction in boys' primary schools on 31st March 1934. In the preceding year the percentages were 6·5 and 6·8, respectively.

5. Expenditure.—The total cost of maintaining primary schools for Indian boys fell during the year under review from Rs. 66,37,904 to Rs. 64,99,588. Of this amount Rs. 36,56,716, or 56·26 per cent., was borne by public funds and Rs. 28,42,872, or 43·74 per cent., was provided from private sources. In the previous year public and private funds contributed 55·7 and 44·3 per cent., respectively, of the total cost of maintenance of boys' primary schools. The expenditure from public funds included Rs. 21,62,627 paid from provincial revenues, Rs. 755,433 provided from district funds and Rs. 738,656 contributed by municipal funds against Rs. 22,11,751, Rs. 769,236 and Rs. 718,088, respectively, in the previous year. Thus expenditure incurred from provincial and district funds for the upkeep of primary schools decreased, while that from municipal funds increased. Reduction of grants under certain heads was responsible for the smaller expenditure from provincial revenues; in the case of the district boards, the decrease of expenditure was due to the reduced income of the district boards on account of the economic distress prevailing in the country.

6. Panchayati union schools.—It has already been mentioned that there was 3,991 primary schools under the management of the district boards. Of these about 3,000 were constructed before 1917-18. The schools constructed after 1917-18 have come to be known as panchayati union schools. These schools are managed by district boards with financial aid received from Government. In the year under report a sum of Rs. 1,41,048 was distributed among district boards for the maintenance of 1,080 (912 boys' schools and 168 girls' schools) panchayati union schools in the presidency. Extension of the scheme must be postponed pending the introduction of the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act of 1930 when they may have to be readjusted according to local needs. Panchayati union schools are not so popular as the Biss' Scheme schools, as the latter impart education without charging any fees.

7. Biss' Scheme schools.—Extension of the scheme to rural areas has been suspended in view of the enactment of the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, and no new scheme for urban areas could be financed during the year on account of monetary stringency. The number of schools of this type located in rural and urban areas was 283 in the year under report. These schools are managed by district and municipal boards on the basis of grant received from Government amounting to half the total approved cost. The municipalities with a few notable exceptions have not generally shown much enthusiasm in contributing their share of the cost. No fees are charged by these schools.

8. Primary schools in Calcutta.—The number of boys' primary schools in Calcutta rose during the year from 483 to 503, and that of pupils attending them from 39,017 to 40,379. Pupils reading in boys' primary schools and in the primary department of secondary schools together numbered 57,356 on 31st March 1934 against 51,020 in the previous year. The total cost of maintaining boys' primary schools in the city fell during the period under review from Rs. 7,27,830 to Rs. 7,26,795, of which Rs. 6,12,691 was borne by public funds. The free primary schools for boys managed by the Corporation of Calcutta which are included in the number mentioned above rose during the period from 147 to 150. With regard to the scheme for the introduction of free and compulsory primary education in Ward No. IX of Calcutta which was sanctioned by Government in January 1933, the Corporation have recently sanctioned the appointment of an Attendance Officer. The rules framed under section 15 of the Bengal Primary Education Act of 1919 have also been prepared by the Corporation and approved by Government so that the scheme may be put into operation from the beginning of the Calendar year 1935.

9. Night and continuation schools.—Night schools which are meant to make the labouring classes literate are held in the evening for about a couple of hours daily, and are attended mostly by adults, who cannot attend day schools on account of their occupations. The object of these schools being production of literate labourers, they usually teach reading, writing and arithmetic. In the year under report there were 982 night schools in the presidency which taught 24,756 pupils.

Continuation schools which are of two types are found, as previously, only in the Presidency Division and Calcutta. Both types meet in the evening. The first teach only the three R's and are attended mostly by boys, who are working during the daytime, and are unable to attend day primary schools. The object of the second sort is to teach adults, who have already finished the preliminary primary course in an ordinary primary school or in a school of the first type. The subjects usually taught in these schools are arithmetic, a language and a technical subject which is generally tailoring, carpentry, hat-making, book-binding or typewriting. On the 31st March 1934 there were altogether 236 continuation schools in Bengal, which taught 7,108 pupils. Unfortunately, neither teachers nor pupils give very serious attention to the technical subjects, which are of such practical value.

10. Examinations.—In the year under report 19,683 boys appeared in the Primary and Maktab Final Examinations, of whom 14,215 were declared successful. In the previous year the corresponding figures were 16,672 and 11,280, respectively.

11. Curriculum.—No change was made during the period in the curriculum previously in force. Some of the subjects, e.g., English and Geography, are, however, so indifferently taught that boys on seeking admission to high English schools are frequently admitted into lower classes. This state of things will, it is feared, continue until teaching in primary schools is improved by the appointment of better qualified teachers and the syllabus is further simplified.

12. Scholarships.—During the year under review no change was introduced in the number and value of the primary scholarships or in the rules for their award. These scholarships fall under two categories, viz., preliminary primary scholarships and final primary scholarships. The former are awarded as before by district and municipal boards and the latter by the Divisional Inspector of Schools. Most of the Divisional Inspectors of Schools are of opinion that as the cost of primary education has gone up considerably in recent years, and as the number of competitors for the scholarships has risen, both the number and value of the scholarships should be increased. Exception having been taken by the Accountant-General, Bengal, some years ago to the award of preliminary primary scholarships from the funds of local bodies, it was decided that the scholarships should be awarded by the District Inspector of Schools out of Government funds, an equal amount being deducted from the grants placed at the disposal of local bodies by Government. This temporary arrangement is still in force.

13. Double-shift system.—According to this system each school-house is made to accommodate two schools or batches of pupils—one in the morning and another in the afternoon. The same teacher teaches both the batches, although the work puts great strain on him. The great advantage of the scheme lies in the economy in the expenditure on school-houses, which results from its adoption. The experiment was in operation during the year in five Biss' type schools in the district of Bogra; the average attendance in them, however, fell from 215 to 175.

14. School post offices.—The number of primary school teachers who did postal duties in addition to their own work during the year under review was 356 against 289 in the previous year. The remuneration for postal work varied as before from Rs. 5 to Rs. 15 a month.

15. While it is satisfactory to see every year increase in the numbers of pupils reading in primary schools, it cannot be said that any real progress is being made so long as the appalling wastage now apparent is allowed to continue.

Lack of money to be spent upon salaries, coupled with the ever-increasing number of schools (and it is fairly certain that Bengal, in spite of its awkward systems of communications has far too many already) are factors each contributing towards the degradation of primary education.

The District School Boards, which will come into being from the beginning of the year 1934-35, have before them an immense task of reconstruction.

CHAPTER VI.

The Training of Teachers of Indian Schools.

A—TRAINING OF MEN TEACHERS.

1. Educational training institutions in the province are of three kinds. The most advanced—training colleges—are for those intending to become senior (what are called “English”) teachers in schools or to enter the service of Government as Sub-Inspectors of Schools. Next to them come training (or normal) schools which for men are differentiated in title from guru training schools which train primary school teachers, while in the case of women training schools embrace both grades of work, distinguished by the titles senior and junior.

2. For men there are two training colleges—one at Calcutta and one at Dacca. Both are Government institutions, and the annual cost of training between 150 and 160 students is something over a lakh of rupees. Although these colleges are, as have already been mentioned, meant to train men for the inspectorate, as well as for school teaching, the syllabuses which are followed contain little that is useful or suitable for men whose chief work will be the inspection of country primary schools. As might be expected in institutions which open avenues to Government employment, there is very keen competition to gain admission.

3. There is no Government training college for women, and the needs of the province are very inadequately met by training classes at Diocesan College and Loreto House, in Calcutta. The combined capacity of these two is 40.

4. There are in the province five normal schools, though the old division of Bengal into east and west still persists in their names and courses of study. West Bengal calls them training schools and prescribes a three-year course, while in East Bengal they have the more modern title of normal school and a two-year course. All five of the institutions are maintained by Government at a total cost of a little more than one and a quarter lakhs of rupees. When full they can have in training at one time over 400 students for junior posts in secondary schools.

Guru training schools or institutions for the training of primary school teachers numbered 85 during the year. With a few exceptions these are maintained entirely at Government expense, the students under training being paid stipends also at the rate of Rs. 10 per month. During the year 2,241 students were being trained in these schools, this number showing an increase of 62 over the preceding year. The total cost was Rs. 3,60,053. Certain schools, notably that at Hatchapra, district Nadia (organised on the lines of Punjab schools), and the one at Birisiri on the boarder of the Garo Hills in Mymensingh are doing excellent work in providing for their students a complete training in village work.

5. The training institutions for women teachers which parallel normal schools and guru training schools are called training schools which work up to two standards—senior and junior.

There are ten of these training schools for women, three of which are maintained by Government, and the number of pupils in them was 256 compared with 241 in the preceding year. The total cost of maintaining them amounted in the year under review to Rs. 79,042, of which Rs. 64,295 was met from provincial revenues; the corresponding figures for the previous year were Rs. 77,591 and Rs. 61,201, respectively.

Modern educational theory lays great stress upon the paramount importance of the training of the teacher. The facilities afforded in Bengal are hopelessly inadequate, and there is the additional disadvantage that especially in the lower grades of training institutions, the mental equipment of the students is far below the standard which should be demanded. The following table is illuminating:—

	Men teachers.		Women teachers.
	Total number of teachers.	Number of trained teachers.	Total number of teachers.	Number of trained teachers.
Primary schools	.. 82,280	24,403	5,670	597
Middle schools	.. 10,716	2,944	434	233
High schools	.. 14,740	1,909	513	174

CHAPTER VII.

Professional and technical education.

1. Law colleges and classes.—Facilities for the study of Law are available in three institutions in the presidency, viz., University Law College, Calcutta, the Law Departments of Ripon College and the Law Faculty of the University of Dacca. The number of students reading in the three institutions fell from 2,334 to 2,214 of whom 1,857 were Hindus and 334 were Muhammadans. The upkeep of the University Law College, Calcutta, and the Law Department of Ripon College cost Rs. 2,17,946 as compared with Rs. 2,21,160 in the previous year. The expenditure incurred for the maintenance of the Law Classes attached to Dacca University, which has not been shown separately in the University returns, is included in the General Tables under the head "Universities". The three institutions passed 584 out of the 1,326 students who sat for the Final B. L. Examination.

2. Medical colleges and schools.—Higher medical instruction is provided by three institutions, viz., Calcutta Medical College, the Carmichael Medical College, Belgachia, and the School of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene. The three institutions enrolled 1,413 students (including 16 women) on 31st March 1934, as compared with 1,331 (including 17 women) on the corresponding date of the preceding year. Of the total number 58 were Europeans and Anglo-Indians, 1,245 were Hindus and 93 were Muhammadans. The cost of maintaining the three institutions fell during the period from Rs. 8,81,311 to Rs. 8,60,080. In the Final Examination the three institutions presented altogether 519 students of whom 208 were declared successful.

The number of medical schools in the presidency was 12, 9 of which are recognised; these schools altogether had 2,535 pupils (including 40 women) against 2,387 students (including 30 women) in the previous year. Of the total roll strength 2,220 were Hindus and 263 were Moslems. The cost of maintaining medical schools rose during the period from Rs. 5,51,871 to Rs. 5,61,537. Altogether 1,830 candidates appeared from these schools in the Final Examination and of these 1,017 were successful.

3. Veterinary College, Belgachia.—The number of students reading in this college rose during the year from 176 to 184, of whom 110 were Hindus, and 39 were Muslims. The cost of upkeep of the college (Rs. 1,82,571 as compared with Rs. 1,73,243 in the previous year) was borne entirely by provincial revenues. Out of 183 students who sat for the Annual Examination in the year under review 121 were successful.

4. Bengal Engineering College.—In the Bengal Engineering College, Shibpur, roll strength fell during the period from 288 to 283 (of whom 165 were in the Civil Engineering Department, 70 in the Mechanical and Electrical Engineering Department and 48 in the Industrial or Artisan Department). Classified according to race or creed, there were 10 Europeans and Anglo-Indians, 226 Hindus, 43 Muslims and 4 of other communities. The cost of maintaining the college rose from Rs. 3,60,495 to Rs. 3,69,330, of which Rs. 3,07,346 against Rs. 2,96,058 was met from provincial revenues. The average annual cost per student was Rs. 1,304, of which Rs. 1,086 was borne by Government. The results of the college in the various examinations held during the period under review are indicated below:—

Examinations.			Examinees.	Passes.
B. E., Civil Engineering	45	41
B. E., Mechanical Engineering	7	6
Associateship in Mechanical Engineering	3	3
Diploma in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering	8	6

5. Ahsanullah School of Engineering.—The number of students under training in the school fell during the year from 433 to 409 (161 in the Sub-Overseer Classes, 175 in the Overseer Classes, and 73 in the Artisan Department). Of these students 330 were Hindus and 77 Muhammadans. The total cost of maintenance fell from Rs. 1,33,110 to Rs. 1,28,652, of which Rs. 84,580 came from provincial revenues.

6. Bengal Survey School.—In the Bengal Survey School, Mainamati, enrolment fell during the period from 65 to 55, of whom 40 were Hindus, 14 were Muslims and 1 was an Indian Christian. No kanungo candidate joined the school last session; on the other hand, 5 students were admitted to the Special Training Class in Mine Survey. The cost of upkeep of the school rose during the period from Rs. 18,540 to Rs. 19,672, of which Rs. 14,716 was met from provincial revenues. The school passed 23 out of 27 students in the Survey Final Examination and 27 out of 33 students in the Amin Examination.

7. Art schools.—During the year under report there were, as previously, 5 art schools in the presidency of which 1 was managed by Government and 3 were aided. The Government School of Art, Calcutta, had 280 students as compared with 254 in the previous year, of whom 265 were Hindus and 10 were Muslims, the rest being of other creeds. The maintenance of the school cost Rs. 41,843 (against Rs. 42,625 in the preceding year) of which Rs. 28,922 was met from provincial revenues. Twenty-one students passed the Final Examination out of 25 who sat for it. The Commercial Art Section of the school continues to flourish.

8. Commercial institutions.—Facilities for advanced commercial education continued to be provided by the two universities and the Commerce Department of Vidyasagar College, Calcutta. Teaching in I. Com. is imparted by Jaganath Intermediate College, Dacca. The four institutions had 876 students on 31st March 1934 against 760 in the previous year. Altogether 25 students passed the M. Com., 105 students the B. Com., and 27 students the I. Com. Examination in the year under review, the number of examinees being 33,224 and 44, respectively.

The number of commercial schools in Bengal fell during the period from 24 to 22, of which 1 was managed by Government and 3 were aided; the rest did not receive any aid. The Government Commercial Institute, Calcutta, registered 396 pupils on 31st March 1934 against 373 in the previous year of whom 364 were Hindus and 20 were Muslims, the rest belonging to other communities. The cost of maintenance fell during the period from Rs. 65,616 to Rs. 58,877, of which Rs. 31,016 was provided from provincial revenues. Ninety-four students of the institute sat for the Final Commercial Course Examination, of whom 82 were successful. In the Special Commercial Examination 32 students of the school passed out of 77 candidates, who presented themselves. The recommendation made by the Bengal Retrenchment Committee that the institution should be closed down has not been accepted by Government.

9. Weaving schools.—The weaving schools of the Presidency are controlled by the Department of Industries. Some of them are permanently located and some are peripatetic. Hence, the number of these schools fluctuates considerably from year to year. The chief of these schools is the Government Weaving Institute, Serampore, which had 156 pupils under training on 31st March 1934 against 138 in the previous year. Of the total enrolment 117 were Hindus, 26 were Moslems and 13 were Indian Christians. The cost of maintaining the school rose during the year from Rs. 37,075 to Rs. 39,217, of which Rs. 38,029 was borne by provincial revenues.

10. Music schools.—The number of music schools in the Presidency was 7 as compared with 10 in the preceding year, of which 6 received aid from public funds. The decrease in the number of schools was due to the abolition during the period of 3 schools in the district of Bankura for want of support. The music schools taught 328 pupils during the year as compared with 504 in the year preceding.

11. Agricultural schools.—There is no institution in Bengal for imparting agricultural instruction of the collegiate type. With regard to the teaching of agriculture in secondary schools some account has been given in Chapter IV of this report. Of the agricultural schools proper which numbered 6, 2 were managed by Government, 3 were aided and 1 was unaided. These schools registered 279 pupils on 31st March 1934 against 161 in the previous year.

12. Other technical centres.—The following senior technical schools which afford facilities for vocational education may be specially mentioned in this report:—

- (i) In the Calcutta Technical School roll strength dropped from 175 to 164. The cost of maintaining the school also fell from Rs. 55,722 to Rs. 49,426, of which Rs. 31,835 was provided from public funds. Of the 49 students who appeared in the Board of Control's Technical School Annual Examination, 36 were successful. Five out of 6 apprentices passed the Electrical Wiremen Course Examination; 20 students of the school are reported to have passed the Final Examination and left the school.
- (ii) The Kanchrapara Technical School registered 78 students against 77 in the previous year. The upkeep of the school cost during the period Rs. 90,350, of which Rs. 35,350 came from provincial revenues. Of the 59 candidates who sat for the Board of Control's Annual Examination 53 were declared successful. During the year under report 2 senior posts of Assistant Head Masters were retrenched which were replaced by Assistant Masterhips on lower pay; the post of the Workshop Instructor was kept in abeyance as before and the contingent expenditure was reduced by 40 per cent. In the circumstances, some dislocation of work was inevitable.
- (iii) The Bengal-Nagpur Railway Technical School, Khargpur, had an enrolment of 37 apprentices on 31st March 1934. The cost of running the school amounted to Rs. 5,072, of which Rs. 2,548 was met from public funds. Of the 32 apprentices who appeared in the Board of Control's Technical School Examination in the period under review 23 were declared to have passed.

CHAPTER VIII.

Education of Indian Girls and Women.

1. During the year ending 31st March 1934 the total number of educational institutions of all types and grades meant for Indian girls rose from 18,538 to 19,427, and that of pupils attending them from 500,307 to 536,168; thus institutions and pupils increased by 889 and 35,861, respectively. Girls reading in girls' schools together with those under instruction in boys' schools numbered 649,297 on 31st March 1934; of this number 275,091 were Hindus, 362,746 were Muhammadans, and 11,460 were of other communities. Altogether 8,976 boys are reported to have attended girls' schools in the year under review.

2. Controlling agency.—For the inspection of girls' schools in the Presidency there are, as previously, 2 Inspectresses of Schools; the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions are in charge of the Inspectress of Schools, West Bengal, who has her headquarters at Calcutta; and the Dacca, Chittagong and Rajshahi Divisions are in charge of the Inspectress of Schools, East Bengal, whose headquarters are at Dacca. Each of the Inspectresses of Schools is assisted in her work by 6 Assistant Inspectresses of Schools.

3. Collegiate education.—During the year under report the number of arts colleges for Indian women remained unchanged at 6, including the Women's Section of Vidyasagar College, Calcutta, which counts as a separate unit. Two of the arts colleges for women, viz., Bethune College, Calcutta, and the Eden Intermediate College, Dacca, are, as previously, directly managed by Government; the rest including the Diocesan College which receives aid from the department are under private management. The women's colleges registered 596 pupils on 31st March 1934 as compared with 508 on the corresponding date of the previous year; the subjoined table indicates the enrolment and cost of upkeep of each of the women's colleges. Besides this number there were 460 women reading in men's colleges and in the University Classes. The demand for college education is steadily increasing among Indian girls, in response to which the authorities of some arts colleges for men have opened separate sections for women in their colleges.

Figures relating to Arts Colleges for Women.

Eden Intermediate College, Dacca ..	60	4	1	65	15,777	2,690	19,467	300

In the Bethune College roll strength increased by 43, the increase being accompanied by a considerable reduction in the average cost per girl. Further development of the college has been arrested by inadequate and out-of-date class room accommodation and absence of affiliation in B. Sc. Standard in Physics and Chemistry. The college has secured affiliation in civics I. A. Standard and Economics Honours in B. A. Standard with effect from the session 1934-35 and the creation of the post of an Additional Lecturer in Economics has been sanctioned to cope with the work. The question of utilising the Christ Church School buildings, which have been acquired for the college, is still under consideration; the premises will probably be adapted for college classes instead of a hostel as was originally contemplated. The college passed 12 out of 16 girls in the B. A. Examination; in the Intermediate Examination the college passed 25 out of 34 girls in Arts, and 8 out of 10 girls in Science.

The Eden Intermediate College, Dacca, continues to occupy rented buildings. In August 1933 the appointment of a Classical (Arabic and Persian) Teacher was sanctioned by Government; this teacher instructs the Moslem girls of Class VII and upwards in Arabic. The Health Officer, Dacca Municipality, arranged for the delivery of a set of lectures to the First Year students in First Aid and Home Nursing. The college passed 28 out of 38 students in the I. A. Examination. There is no Science Class attached to the institution.

The opening of classes for women in men's colleges has slightly reduced the roll numbers in Diocesan College. This college passed 9 out of 10 students in B. A. and 19 out of 19 students in the I. A. Examination. The Loreto House presented 17 students in the B. A., 25 students in the I. A., and 8 students in the I. Sc. Examinations, of whom 14, 25 and 4, respectively, were successful. The Victoria Institution passed 2 girls out of 4 who appeared in the I. A. Examination, 1934.

4. Secondary schools.—(i) High schools.—The number of high English schools for Indian girls rose during the year under report from 39 to 44; the starting of new high schools for girls in Calcutta is responsible for the increased number. Of these schools 5 are, as previously, maintained by Government and 32 are aided by the department; the rest receive no aid. The desire for secondary education of Indian girls is so keen that the authorities of some boys' high English schools, e.g., Faridpur, Serajganj, have opened separate sections for girls in their schools. The number of girls reading in high English schools also increased during the year from 11,452 to 13,212. In the Matriculation Examination held in 1934, 609 girls out of 1,047 were successful; the corresponding figures for the previous year were 547 and 813, respectively. Maharani High School, Darjeeling, an aided institution, received a grant from His Excellency the Viceroy's Earthquake Relief Fund for repair of the damage caused by the last earthquake.

(ii) Middle schools.—The number of middle English schools for Indian girls rose during the year from 57 to 70, and that of girls attending them from 9,083 to 10,699. The number of middle vernacular schools for girls, however, declined from 11 to 7; these schools taught 810 girls as compared with 982 in the preceding year.

High schools for girls cost Rs. 8,05,312 and middle schools Rs. 3,62,958 during the year under report, of which Rs. 3,27,803 and Rs. 1,41,031, respectively, came from public funds.

The 10 per cent. emergency cut made in the grants payable to non-Government secondary schools for girls in the "excluded areas" of Darjeeling and Chittagong Hill Tracts was abolished with retrospective effect in the year under review to bring them in line with the grants paid to non-Government secondary schools for girls in the "transferred areas" which were not subjected to the emergency cut.

5. Primary schools.—The year 1933-34 closed with 18,871 primary schools of all types for Indian girls attended by 603,829 girls; the corresponding figures for the previous year were 18,067 and 563,358, respectively. The number of panchayati union schools for girls remained unchanged at 167. But the number of free primary schools managed by the Corporation of Calcutta rose during the year from 84 to 85 and they taught 12,785 pupils as compared with 12,438 in the preceding year. The number of primary schools which aim at educating peasant girls living in the remoter parts of the Presidency Division was 22 as previously. Among private agencies which are striving for the spread of primary education among Indian girls the Nari Sikha Samiti, the Society for the Improvement of Backward Classes, Bengal and Assam, and Missionary Societies deserve special commendation. The Society for the Improvement of Backward Classes which receives from the department a substantial grant for their educational activities managed 118 girls' schools during the period under review. The Nari Sikha Samiti also maintains some schools in different parts of the province. The Uttarpara Hitakari Sava continues to encourage female education by holding examinations and awarding scholarships to deserving girls. Primary schools for Indian girls cost Rs. 14,46,172 during the year under review to which Rs. 9,86,222 was contributed by public funds.

6. Special schools.—On 31st March 1934 the presidency had 46 technical, industrial and other special schools for Indian girls, which were attended altogether by 2,789 pupils; the corresponding numbers in the preceding year were 43 and 2,138, respectively. In special schools girls are taught such arts and crafts as will enable them to earn a living the training being supplemented by some amount of general knowledge. The technical subjects that are usually taught are needle-work of various kinds, lace-making, weaving, spinning and tailoring.

7. Zenana education.—The system of zenana education, a method adopted by which zenana governesses teach married purdah women at central gatherings or by visiting them in their houses, has been totally abolished, as the results achieved by this method of education did not justify the expenditure incurred. It has been decided by Government that the funds that will be set free in consequence of the abolition of the system of zenana education are to be utilised for the improvement of education among Moslem girls. The new scheme involves (a) grant of aid to Junior Madrasahs and middle English schools for Moslem girls, and (b) creation of stipends available for Moslem girls who will agree to join training schools and colleges.

8. Needle-work.—The quality of needle-work is reported to have improved immensely in urban schools under the guidance of the peripatetic needle-work teachers. In village primary schools, however, says the Inspectress of Schools, West Bengal, where a pandit is in charge of the school, the teaching given is unsatisfactory, and cannot be improved, until funds are available for the employment of more trained women teachers. The sewing grant of Re. 1 a month paid to some schools by the department for the purchase of sewing materials is much appreciated, although the amount is hardly adequate. The Lady Carmichael diploma in needle-work has been greatly responsible for improvement of needle-work done by girls, and girls from East and West Bengal are said to be eager to compete for the diploma.

CHAPTER IX.

Education of Europeans and Anglo-Indians

1. Schools.—The year 1933-34 closed with 67 institutions for the education of Europeans and Anglo-Indians as compared with 68 in the preceding year; the decrease of 1 school is due to the exclusion of Hastings Day School, Calcutta, in which the number of pupils having fallen off very considerably, the school was closed in March 1933. Of the 67 institutions reported, 3 are for special instruction, and 64 impart general education. The 3 special institutions mentioned above are (1) the Commercial and Technical Classes attached to the Y. W. C. A., Calcutta, (2) Dow Hill Training College, Kurseong, and (3) the Children's House, Kurseong. The 64 institutions for general education include 24 secondary, 19 higher grade, 20 primary and 1 ungraded schools. Three of the institutions, viz., Victoria Boys' School, Dow Hill Girls' School and Dow Hill Training College for School Mistresses, Kurseong, are directly managed by Government; the rest are managed by various religious and philanthropic societies and railway authorities. Several European schools are mixed schools containing both boys and girls, but as the standard forms prescribed for annual returns do not recognise the nomenclature "mixed schools," such schools have been included in the category of boys' schools or girls' schools, according as they have respectively a majority of boys or girls in them.

2. Pupils.—The subjoined table shows the European schools of the Presidency classified according to management together with their enrolment:—

			1932-33.		1933-34.
			Number of schools.	Number of pupils.	Number of schools.	Number of pupils.
Government	3	361	3	385
Church of England	9	1,873	9	1,817
Church of Rome	30	6,769	30	6,563
Non-conformist	5	812	4	850
Undenominational	17	1,405	17	1,407
Jewish	3	324	3	338
Armenian	1	120	1	98
Total	68	11,664	67	11,458

The total number of pupils reading in European schools thus fell during the year under report from 11,664 to 11,458 or by 206. Of the total enrolment in 1933-34, 6,191 were boys and 5,267 were girls as compared with 6,437 boys and 5,227 girls, respectively, in the preceding year; thus although the number of girls increased by 40, that of boys decreased by 246. Non-European pupils reading in European schools numbered 2,556 against 2,539 in the preceding year; of these 1,129 were Indian Christians, Jews, Armenians and others.

3. Expenditure.—The total cost of maintaining European schools amounted during the year under review to Rs. 35,92,761 (including boarding charges of Rs. 10,58,215 as compared with Rs. 10,82,372 in the previous year). The amount was contributed from the following sources:—

			1932-33.	1933-34.
			Rs.	Rs.
1. Provincial revenues	8,33,256	8,41,463
2. Municipal grant	30,971	44,505
3. Fees	10,74,335	15,94,025
4. Subscriptions and donations	10,12,738	11,12,768
Total	35,51,300	35,92,761

Thus expenditure increased under all heads except fees.

4. Scholarships.—A sum of Rs. 28,039, as compared with Rs. 27,178 in the previous year, was spent on the award of scholarships to pupils of European schools in 1933-34. This figure represents the amounts actually drawn by students, and excludes the amount of scholarships, which were awarded in other provinces, but paid in Bengal. Altogether 187 scholarships were awarded.

5. Teachers.—The number of teachers employed in European schools in the Presidency during the year ending 31st March 1934 was 795 as compared with 784 teachers working in these schools in the previous year. Of the total number 148 were graduates; 475 teachers including 80 graduates were trained, and 320 teachers including 68 graduates were untrained. The number of trained and untrained teachers reported in the previous year were 474 and 310 respectively.

6. Training of teachers.—On account of financial stringency no European or Anglo-Indian male teacher was deputed in the year under report to the Chelmsford Training College, Goragali, Punjab, for training.

The Dow Hill Training College, Kurseong, which has facilities for training European and Anglo-Indian female teachers, enrolled 17 pupil teachers as compared with 18 in the preceding year. In the annual examination held in November 1933, seven Senior or Second Year students presented themselves and all of them were successful.

7. Examinations.—Government have now decided to realise an examination fee of Rs. 3 from each of the candidates for the Higher Grade School Final and Scholarship Examinations and Rs. 15 per student in the case of the Dow Hill Training College Final Examination. The two scholarships of Rs. 24 per mensem awarded on the results of the Higher Grade School Scholarship Examination have been made tenable at either a higher grade or a secondary school. The following table indicates the results of the various examinations for which pupils entered in 1932-33 and 1933-34:—

	1932-33.				1933-34.

8. Education of sub-normal children.—The Children's House, Kurseong, which adopts special methods for training mentally and physically defective European children, registered 24 pupils on 31st March 1934 as compared with the same number on the corresponding date of the previous year. Stipends amounting to Rs. 2,520 were awarded by the department during the year under report for the maintenance and education of the children living in the House.

9. Trust funds.—(i) Sussex Trust.—The income of the fund amounted during the year 1933-34 to Rs. 28,436, and the expenditure for the same period was Rs. 23,495-9-5. Nine overseas scholars and twelve local scholars profited by the scholarships awarded. An expenditure of Rs. 4,884-6 was also incurred in connection with the award of scholarships under the head "Special endowment—G—Overseas scholarships for European and Anglo-Indian girls (ex-students of the Dow Hill Training College, Kurseong)."

(ii) Doveton Trust Fund.—The total amount of receipts including the opening balance on 1st April 1933 and the interest accruing on Government securities during the year under report was Rs. 8,452-12-2 and the total expenditure for the same period was Rs. 6,616-6-6, leaving a closing balance of Rs. 1,836-5-8. Altogether 40 scholarships were awarded during the year under review out of the income derived from the fund.

10. Controlling agency.—Mr. T. G. Barker continued to act as Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, throughout the period under review. The Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, is also ex-officio administrator of the Doveton Trust Fund.

11. European Schools Code.—Owing to financial stringency it was not possible during the year under report to give full effect to the provisions of the revised Code of Regulations (1929) for European Schools, which led as in the previous year to a reduction in the amount available for maintenance, teaching-staff, and fixed grants to European schools in the presidency.

Government have approved of the revised system of awarding cadet and other similar grants to non-Government European schools involving an annual expenditure of Rs. 5,600. Necessary alterations have accordingly been made in the European Schools Code.

12. Association of Teachers of European Schools in Bengal.—This newly formed association already consists of 314 members recruited from 28 schools and bids fair to become an useful addition to the agencies which work in the province for the advancement of European and Anglo-Indian education. Departmental recognition was granted to the association in August 1933.

13. Government Schools, Kurseong.—The educational efficiency of the Government Schools, Kurseong, has been well maintained. Intermediate Classes in Arts have been added to the Victoria Boys' School; in the last I. A. Examination 4 students were presented from this school, all of whom were successful. Government were approached for according administrative sanction to the installation of electric lights in the Kurseong schools which was given after the close of the period under review. The Governing Bodies of Victoria Boys' School and Dow Hill Girls' School have been amalgamated to constitute a single Committee of Management for the two schools.

14. Financial position.—During the year ending 31st March 1934, there was practically no improvement in the economic situation. Fresh cases of parents being retrenched or businesses failing through trade depression have not come to notice, but at the same time very few cases of re-employment can be reported up to the present and the condition of those who have suffered is getting steadily worse. During the year under review a sum of Rs. 22,638-12 was spent by the Managing Committee of His Excellency the Governor's "Calcutta Schools Emergency Fund" in giving stipends to 255 European and Anglo-Indian children studying in 21 schools and but for this help it would have been impossible for the recipients to continue their education.

15. The earthquake.—Many European schools in the hills suffered considerably from the effects of the earthquake which took place in January 1934, and requests for assistance to rebuild and repair the school premises amounted to Rs. 2,88,000.

CHAPTER X.

Education of Muhammadans.

1. Statistics of Muhammadan pupils.—During the year under review the total number of Moslem students reading in all grades of educational institutions for Indians rose from 1,476,797 to 1,541,342. Of the total number 1,178,596 were boys and 362,746 were girls compared with 1,101,829 boys and 275,091 girls belonging to the Hindu community returned on 31st March 1934. The proportion of Muhammadan students to the total number of pupils under instruction at the end of the year rose from 51·7 per cent. to 51·9 per cent. The statistics for the last two years which are furnished in the following table show that the number of Moslem students increased in course of the year in all grades of institutions except professional colleges and special schools, the widespread economic depression which has overtaken all classes of people and has affected the Moslem community more particularly, is chiefly responsible for the decrease of pupils in such institutions. In arts and professional colleges Moslem pupils constituted 13·3 and 11·5 per cent. of the total enrolment against 13·4 and 11·8 per cent., respectively, in the previous year; in the high, middle and primary stages their proportions to the total number of students under instruction were 21·2; 24·6; and 55·01 per cent., against 20·2; 24·7; and 54·5 respectively in the year before; in special schools the proportion was 69·3 per cent. as compared with 70·6 in the year preceding.

	1932-33.		1933-34.
	Number of Muham-madan students.	Percen-tage.	Number of Muham-madan students.	Percen-tage.

2. Special institutions for Muhammadans.—Besides the general schools and colleges, which are open to boys and girls of all communities, special facilities for high education are provided for Moslem boys by the Muslim Hall of Dacca University, and the Islamia College, Calcutta. The following paragraphs briefly describe the progress achieved by Moslem students in the period under review in the special institutions of different types which are chiefly meant for them:—

(i) Islamic intermediate colleges.—During the year under review the number of Islamic intermediate colleges in the Presidency was 3 as previously; 2 of these colleges, viz., the Islamic Intermediate Colleges at Dacca and Chittagong, are maintained by Government as before, and the third, which is at Serajganj, is aided by the department. This college was paid a lump grant to meet the past deficit in its working expenses. The number of students reading in the 3 colleges rose from 142 to 154 on 31st March 1934. Of the 72 candidates that appeared in the Islamic Intermediate Examination in 1934, 55 were successful. For the first time in the year under report the students of Islamic intermediate colleges sat for the examination in English Literature and History as optional subjects.

(ii) Madrasahs.—The total number of Madrasahs in Bengal rose in course of the year from 710 to 725, but the number of pupils attending them fell from 66,692 to 65,683. The total cost of maintaining Madrasahs increased from Rs. 13,73,354 to Rs. 13,83,901 and the amount of the expenditure met from public funds from Rs. 4,76,378 to Rs. 4,88,107. The particulars in respect of each type of Madrasahs are shown below:—

		No. of Madrasahs.	No. of pupils.	Cost of mainte- nance.	Cost met from pub- lic funds.
				Rs.	Rs.
(a) Reformed Senior (High)	..	34	5,662	2,69,023	1,33,200
(b) Reformed Junior	..	558	49,847	8,96,189	2,60,123
(c) Old type Senior	..	45	5,654	1,87,001	90,336
(d) Old type Junior	..	88	4,520	31,688	4,358
Total	..	725	65,683	13,83,901	4,88,107

In the High Madrasah Examination conducted by the Dacca Board 501 students appeared and of these 233 were declared successful.

A committee of five members was appointed by the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca, to enquire into the causes of low percentage of passes at the High Madrasah Examination. In the opinion of the committee the low percentage of passes is due mainly to failures in English and that the teachers of English in Madrasahs are not always sufficiently qualified. To remedy this state of things the committee made the following chief recommendations:—

- (i) that the number of English teachers in High Madrasahs be increased by one and that of Arabic teachers decreased by one;

- (ii) that, if possible, arrangements should be made at the Teachers' Training College, Dacca, for a vacation course on the methods of teaching English for English teachers of High Madrasahs; and
- (iii) that Government be requested to increase the grant of High Madrasahs to Rs. 200 a month.

In the Junior Madrasah Examination held in November 1933, 3,020 candidates appeared of whom 2,017 passed.

The title classes in Fiqh and Usul groups attached to Calcutta Madrasah have been continued on a temporary basis. Of the 247 candidates who appeared during the period from Calcutta Madrasah in the different examinations conducted by the Central Madrasah Examination Board 176 were declared to have passed. Considering the increasing demand for English-knowing Munlvis it has been suggested that English should be a compulsory subject in the Arabic Department, Calcutta Madrasah.

(iii) Maktabs.—In the year under review the number of maktabs rose from 26,405 to 26,743, of which 17,270 were for boys and 9,473 for girls. The number of pupils reading in maktabs also increased during the period from 867,556 to 931,765; of the total number of pupils 647,786 were boys and 283,979 were girls. In the previous year maktabs were attended by 608,519 boys and 259,037 girls. Maktabs are very popular institutions as they impart both general and religious instruction. The total cost of maintaining maktabs fell in the period under review from Rs. 21,99,227 to Rs. 21,79,842 and the amount of expenditure borne by public funds from Rs. 11,31,536 to Rs. 10,92,218.

(iv) Quran schools.—The number of Quran schools or muscunlarised maktabs rose during the period from 340 to 359; these schools were attended by 10,023 pupils as compared with 8,451 in the preceding year. These schools teach the pupils the rituals of Islam in addition to the ordinary school subjects.

(v) Muallim training schools.—The number of muallim training schools which are intended to train maktab teachers remained unchanged during the year at 6, namely, 1 in the Burdwan Division, 3 in the Presidency Division, 1 in the Chittagong Division and 1 in the Rajshahi Division. All these schools are managed by Government; they had 166 teachers under training against 167 in the previous year. These schools have been dealt with in Chapter VI of this report under the head guru training schools. Maktab teachers are also admitted to guru training schools.

3. Education of Muhammadan girls.—During the period under review the number of Muhammadan girls reading in all classes of recognised schools in the Presidency rose from 329,150 to 355,894. Of the total number 20 were in colleges, 210 were in the high stage, 422 were in the middle stage, 354,083 were in the primary stage and 1,159 were in special schools; the corresponding numbers for the previous year were 11; 161; 290; 328,219 and 469, respectively. Proposals were submitted to Government towards the end of the year for the establishment of a high English school for Moslem girls in Calcutta under the management of Government with the Sakhiwat Memorial School as its nucleus. In October 1933 a scheme for the improvement of education among Moslem girls in the presidency at an annual cost of Rs. 12,600 was administratively approved by Government. The scheme involves among other things (a) a total annual grant-in-aid of Rs. 2,400 to 3 Junior Madrasahs for girls at Rajshahi, Barisal and Sutiakati, and (b) the creation of 11 stipends of Rs. 5 each per mensem tenable for 2 years in Classes V and VI of the Madrasahs mentioned above.

4. Special facilities.—For the encouragement of Muslim education in the presidency, the following facilities have been provided by Government, namely, reservation of places in favour of Muslim students in Government and Government aided schools, grant of special scholarships and stipends to Muslim students and of free studentships up to a limit of 15 per cent. of their own enrolment, and higher grant to denominational schools, c.g., 50 per cent. higher grant to recognised maktabas.

5. Advisory committee.—The committee which was appointed by Government in 1931 to advise them with regard to the policy to be followed for the advancement of Muslim education in the presidency have concluded their labours and drawn up a report.

CHAPTER XI.

Education of special classes.

1. Chiefs and nobles.—As stated in previous reports, there is no institution in Bengal which is meant specially for educating the sons of chiefs and nobles. But there are special arrangements for education of the boys of the Nizamat family in the Nabab Bahadur's Institution, Murshidabad, where a separate hostel has been reserved for them. The Nizamat boys live in this special hostel under the direct supervision of the Head Master of the school. The number of Nizamat boys who occupied the hostel in the year under review was the same as in the previous year, viz., 26. The maintenance of the hostel cost Government Rs. 4,984.

2. Education of the children of backward classes.—In the sub-joined table statistics are given showing the number of boys and girls of backward communities that were under instruction in various grades of schools and colleges in the presidency on 31st March 1934 :—

Class of institution.	Boys.	Girls.	Total.
In arts colleges	1,059	5	1,064
In professional colleges	756	..	756
In secondary and primary schools	364,886	76,015	440,901
In special schools	9,109	470	9,579
In unrecognised schools	8,499	1,495	9,994
Total	384,309	77,985	462,294

The corresponding numbers in the previous year were 368,950; 68,270; and 437,220, respectively. In the succeeding paragraphs a concise account is given of the educational progress that was noticeable among the children of aboriginal and non-aboriginal backward classes during the year under report in each division of the presidency separately. In November 1933 revised rules for the award of free studentships in Government and Government aided schools were approved by Government in which it has been laid down that pupils belonging to educationally backward classes will be allowed free studentships subject to a minimum of 2 up to an annual limit of 15 per cent. of their enrolment.

(i) Calcutta.—In the year under review the number of primary schools meant chiefly for the children of backward communities rose from 30 to 31 including 2 for girls; the number of pupils attending these schools also rose from 1,225 to 1,240. Of the 31 schools 8 were managed by Christian missions and 23 by Hindu missions. For the maintenance of these primary schools a sum of Rs. 8,447 was contributed from public funds. The Hindu Relief Society managed, as previously, an industrial school for pupils belonging to backward classes for the upkeep of which the society received a grant of Rs. 1,250 from the Corporation funds; this school was attended by 98 pupils as compared with 121 in the preceding year.

(ii) Presidency Division (outside Calcutta).—The Namasudras and Pods of 24-Parganas, Khulna and Jessore are reported to have started quite a large number of primary and secondary schools for their children. The District Board of 24-Parganas subsidised many primary schools in the Sunderbans, which are populated chiefly by backward communities. The Tarrarat Upper Primary, the Digba Lower Primary and the Dhapiram Chawk Girls' Lower Primary Schools for backward classes are maintained, as before, by the Sussex Trust Fund. A free primary school was started for Sonthal children at Manigram in the district of Murshidabad in the year under report. The total number of schools specially intended for the education of backward classes in the division was 830 during the year under review, of which 11 were high schools, 58 middle schools and 761 primary schools. The Society for the Improvement of Backward Classes, Bengal and Assam, is reported to be doing very good work by subsidising those schools which are attended chiefly by the children of backward communities.

(iii) Burdwan Division.—Bagdis, Teors, Sonthals and other backward classes constitute about 48 lakhs of the population of the division. Boys and girls of backward classes under instruction in the division are reported to have increased by 2,098 and 2,279 respectively during the year under review. There are several free primary schools for Sonthals in the districts of Midnapore, Bankura and Birbhum; the funds allotted for their maintenance are controlled by the Boards of Sonthal Education in these districts of which the District Magistrates are Presidents. The inspection of Sonthal schools in Birbhum and Bankura is in the hands of the Sub-Inspectors of Schools on general duty, but Midnapore has a special Assistant Sub-Inspector to look after Sonthal education in the district. The American Baptist Mission of Bhimpur in the district of Midnapore and the Methodist Mission of Bankura have played an important part in the improvement of Sonthal education. In the Sonthal High School at Bhimpur, Midnapore, managed by the American Baptist Mission, roll strength increased from 204 to 223. The upkeep of the school cost Rs. 13,196 towards which provincial revenues contributed Rs. 2,520. The middle vernacular school for Sonthal girls at Bhimpur had 83 pupils against 80 in the previous year. The school cost Rs. 2,237 of which Rs. 720 was met from provincial revenues. The industrial school for girls at Bhimpur which was merged in the local middle vernacular school in the previous year for lack of funds enrolled 7 pupils on 31st March 1934 and cost Rs. 906 which was met from the mission funds. The girls of this school are taught lace-weaving, knitting and other useful manual works. The Methodist Mission of Bankura managed one aided middle vernacular school for boys, one guru training school for males, one industrial school for boys and one for girls, and 86 primary schools including one for girls. There were altogether 259 Sonthal primary schools with 7,437 pupils at the end of the year under review against 266 schools with 6,846 pupils in the previous year. The total cost of primary education for Sonthals amounted to Rs. 44,160, of which Rs. 32,126 was met from provincial revenues and Rs. 2,721 came from district funds. There was also one peripatetic weaving school attended by 10 Sonthal pupils in the district of Birbhum which cost Rs. 1,632; it was met entirely from provincial revenues. Two Sonthal boys secured preliminary primary scholarships in general competition in the district of Bankura.

(iv) Dacca Division.—Boys and girls of backward classes reading in the schools of Dacca Division increased by 4,289 and 3,389 respectively in the year under report. There were 10 primary schools for muchis, 2 for methars, 1 Harijan school for methars and doms; 17 for fishermen and 40 for aboriginal tribes comprising altogether 70 as compared with 62 in the previous year. High schools intended for Kapalis and Namasudras remained stationary at 9, but middle schools meant for Namasudras declined from 31 to 29; while middle schools meant for Kapalis and aboriginal tribes stood at 3 as in the previous year. In the colonisation area of the district of Bakarganj the number of primary schools intended for Magh settlers was 12 as in the previous year which had 79 pupils against 60 in 1932-33. The number of Magh pupils being small, these schools are attended by Hindus and Muslims also.

(v) Chittagong Division.—The number of boys of backward classes receiving instruction in various classes of schools in the division rose during the period by 5,552, but that of girls declined by 914. The whole of the Chittagong Hill Tracts constitutes a backward area and is inhabited by 15 hill tribes. Aboriginal pupils under instruction numbered 2,878, of whom 2,695 were boys and 183 were girls. For the education of aboriginal tribes there were one high, 4 middle and 152 primary schools for boys and 2 primary schools for girls in the Chittagong Hill Tracts, against one high, 4 middle, 149 primary schools for boys and 1 primary schools for girls in the preceding year. The four middle schools, 130 primary schools for boys and 2 primary schools for girls are aided by public funds and the rest are unaided. There were also 38 unaided Kyang schools for imparting religious instruction to Buddhist boys. In the Cox's Bazar subdivision there were 5 Burmese schools all managed by Government which had 248 Magh pupils against 256 in the previous year. These schools cost Rs. 2,390 in the period under report. Besides these, there were one middle English school at Ramoo and 2 aided primary schools one for boys and one for girls and 30 Kyang schools in the Cox's Bazar Municipality.

(vi) Rajshahi Division.—Pupils of backward communities form 14.1 per cent. of the total school population in the division. Pupils of educationally backward classes among Hindus rose by 7,069. During the year under report there were as previously 3 Boards of Sonthal Education at Dinajpur, Rangpur and Malda which had 72 primary schools under their control as previously. The number of Sonthal pupils attending these schools increased from 1,467 to 2,420. Schools intended for hill tribes and aboriginal races other than Sonthals in the district of Jalpaiguri numbered 19 during the period, namely, one middle English and 18 primary schools with 584 pupils on their rolls. The middle English school was aided by Government and the primary schools received aid from district funds as well as from the 1 per cent. grant.

3. Education of criminal classes.—The elementary school which was started for the education of the prisoners of Jalpaiguri Jail was abolished during the year under review. The industrial school maintained by the Salvation Army at Nilphamari for the Karwal Nuts had 36 boys and 36 girls on 31st March 1934 against 35 boys and 33 girls in the preceding year. In this school there are arrangements for teaching farming, gardening and weaving besides the ordinary primary school subjects. It is a residential school having separate hostels for boys and girls. The upkeep of the school cost Rs. 11,000 during the period under review which was borne entirely by provincial revenues. There is a school for criminal classes at Kaktengai, Mymensingh, which enrolled 25 pupils on 31st March 1934. The cost of maintaining the school amounted to Rs. 237 which was wholly met from public funds.

The Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipur, had 201 inmates on 31st March 1934 as compared with 198 in the previous year. The upkeep of the institution cost Rs. 44,336 which was met entirely from provincial revenues. The Committee of Management was reconstituted for 3 years with effect from June 1933, and a revised and improved scale of diet has been introduced. The school has provision for teaching weaving, tailoring, carpentry and smith's work besides the primary syllabus. As the object of reformatory and industrial schools is to train juvenile offenders in habits of self-control and self-reliance, it was directed by Government in October 1933 that as an experimental measure those boys whose conduct has been satisfactory during detention may be allowed to go home or visit places of interest quite unattended for some hours during Sundays and holidays in the last quarter of their detention. The boys have responded well to this concession. Pupils of this school did very well in the All-Bengal Scout Competition and the All-India St. John's Ambulance Competition.

The Borstal Institution at Bankura which educates juvenile offenders of ages 15 to 21 had 188 pupils on 31st March 1934 against 182 on the corresponding date of the previous year. The school is under the immediate supervision of a Deputy Superintendent of Police and teaches various crafts besides general subjects. A sum of Rs. 32,730 was spent for the maintenance of the school which was met entirely from provincial revenues.

4. Education of defectives.—The Deaf and Dumb School, Calcutta, which teaches up to the Final Primary Course besides carpentry, printing, painting, tailoring, clay-modelling, woodwork, metal-plating, embroidery and needle-work (for girls) had 213 pupils including 55 girls under training on 31st March 1934 against 207 pupils including 53 girls in the preceding year. One Final Primary and one Preliminary Primary scholarships were reserved for the deaf mutes. The upkeep of the school cost Rs. 40,444 in the period under review, of which Rs. 22,710 was borne by public funds. The Blind School, Behala, 24-Parganas, taught 79 pupils including 19 girls as compared with 86 pupils including 23 girls in the previous year. The cost of maintenance amounted to Rs. 31,567, of which Rs. 7,620 came from provincial revenues. The school teaches music, weaving, carpentry, basket-making, etc., and also prepares students for the University Examinations. There are as previously 3 aided deaf and dumb schools in the Dacca Division, one at each of the district headquarters of Dacca, Mymensingh and Bakarganj which had altogether 45 boys and 10 girls against 40 boys and 13 girls in the preceding year. The maintenance of these schools cost Rs. 9,529, of which Rs. 3,427 was provided from public funds. The Deaf and Dumb School, Rajshahi, had 11 pupils against 10 in the previous year; the upkeep of the school cost Rs. 525 towards which public funds contributed Rs. 473. The Chittagong Deaf and Dumb School had 19 pupils including 6 girls as compared with 17 pupils—all boys—in the year before; the school cost Rs. 1,645, of which Rs. 883 was met from public funds. It teaches up to the primary standard. A school for defective children was started during the period at Jhargram in the district of Midnapore by the Bodhan Samity, a registered association, which had 8 pupils including a girl. The cost of maintenance was Rs. 3,096, which was met entirely from private sources.

5. Education of factory and colliery children.—In the coal mine areas of the district of Burdwan there are some primary schools meant specially for the education of miners' children. The Banga Lakshmi Cotton Mills, district Hooghly, have a Hindi and a Telegu Primary Schools for the children of labourers which charge no fees. Another primary school is maintained by the railway authorities at Khargpur in the district of Midnapore which is attended by the children of workshop labourers. It had 192 pupils against 193 in the previous year. The upkeep of the school cost Rs. 4,487, of which Rs. 396 came from public funds. There are 6 primary schools in the mill areas of the 24-Parganas which are meant exclusively for the education of factory children. These schools had 520 boys and 9 girls against 847 boys and 9 girls in the previous year. For the children of the Madrassi mill-hands there is a Telegu Class attached to the departmentally-aided primary school at Titaghur. This school, which receives a grant of Rs. 40 per month, taught 136 pupils. The Rifle and Metal Factories at Ichapur maintain two primary schools which were attended by 392 pupils. Of the total maintenance charges of these schools Rs. 2,600 was paid by this department and Rs. 2,847 was paid by the Army Department.

6. Tea garden schools.—Tea garden schools are intended for the education of the children of labourers working in the tea estates of Jalpaiguri and Darjeeling; they teach the primary course. In Jalpaiguri the number of schools rose during the period under review from 103 to 106 and pupils attending them from 1,772 to 1,875. The total expenditure on these schools amounted to Rs. 12,347, of which Rs. 5,434 was provided from public funds. In the district of Darjeeling the number of schools fell from 66 to 65, but the number of pupils reading in these schools rose from 1,453 to 1,604. These schools cost Rs. 13,359 towards which public funds contributed Rs. 6,042.

7. Education of Jains.—There were altogether 642 Jain students reading in different grades of educational institutions in the Presidency on 31st March 1934 as compared with 487 in the previous year. Of the total number of pupils 608 belonged to primary and secondary schools and 34 to colleges.

8. Cantonment schools.—In the cantonment areas of Barrackpore, district 24-Parganas, there were 10 primary and secondary schools against 8 in the previous year which were attended by 773 pupils as compared with 732 in the year before. For the maintenance of these schools a sum of Rs. 28,097 was spent during the year under review of which Rs. 6,168 was borne by provincial revenues, and Rs. 2,462 was met by the cantonment authorities. There were as previously 2 unaided primary schools, one in the Jalapahar and another in the Lebong Cantonment areas in the district of Darjeeling. They had 94 pupils against 108 in the year before. The total cost of the two schools was Rs. 1,659 which was met by the cantonment authorities.

CHAPTER XII.

Unrecognised institutions.

1. The term "unrecognised schools" includes various types of indigenous institutions from the most advanced to the elementary such as tols, pathsalas, Koran schools, Kyangs or Buddhist monastic schools and newly started primary schools and maktabas. Unrecognised schools do not, as a rule, adopt the curriculum prescribed by the university or the department, and are very often inferior in buildings, staff, equipment, teaching methods, discipline and organisation. The number of these schools naturally fluctuates considerably from year to year. In the year under report there were 1,588 unrecognised schools in Bengal attended by 67,171 pupils as compared with 1,554 schools having 65,704 pupils in the preceding year. Of the total enrolment 51,162 were boys and the rest were girls.

2. The most conspicuous among these schools are the group of institutions founded by Dr. Rabindra Nath Tagore at Bolpur and Surul in the district of Birbhum, where considerable prominence has been given to the artistic side of education, and where endeavours have been made to combine the best Indian traditions with the most up-to-date system of Western education. Valuable work is also being done by this group of schools in effecting improvement in village life. Reference should also be made to the Rabindra College, Goila, Bakarganj, which offers higher Sanskrit studies including Ayurveda and Hindu Philosophy, and the Mahakali Pathsala, Mymensingh, a girls' school, which imparts general instruction besides religious teaching on orthodox lines. The pathsala taught 128 girls in the year under review against 150 in the year preceding.

CHAPTER XIII.

Residence of students and their physical and moral training.

1. During the year ending 31st March 1934 the number of students residing in hostels and boarding houses attached to various types of educational institutions in the Presidency fell from 30,110 to 29,433. Of the total number 24,561 lived in hostels meant for Indians and 4,872 occupied boarding houses meant for Europeans and Anglo-Indians. Of the Indian boarders 21,503 were males and 3,058 were females. Among the European and Anglo-Indian boarders 2,802 were boys and 2,070 were girls. The fall in the number of boarders residing in hostels is attributed chiefly to the higher cost of living in them.

On account of financial difficulties of Government, a general cut of 10 per cent. was made in the year 1932-33 in the grants admissible for superintendence of hostels attached to non-Government schools and colleges; these grants were subjected to a further 10 per cent. cut, i.e., altogether 20 per cent. cut in the year under review.

2. Messes.—Messses are preferred to hostels, as residence in a mess is cheaper and is not subjected to such strict supervision. The number of messses (including non-collegiate hostels) administered last year by the Students' Residence Committee of Calcutta University was 36 which accommodated 1,947 boarders. The number of messses managed by the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca, through the Assistant Inspector of Students' Residence during the same period was 24, and they provided accommodation to 591 students belonging to different institutions in the town of Dacca. Both in Calcutta and Dacca the major portion of the cost of residences occupied by students of backward communities is borne by Government.

3. Physical education.—It is generally recognised that a healthy constitution is essential to success in life, and that it can be secured only by some form of physical exercise. Almost all types of schools and colleges are said to be eager for providing facilities for games and sports to their pupils; but progress in this direction is greatly hampered by the absence of playing-grounds, lack of trained instructors and apparatus, inadequacy of funds and the absence of any provision for a midday meal for schoolboys and girls. The Government grant of Rs. 200 a month was paid, as previously, to the Young Women's Christian Association to enable them to maintain the services of a Physical Directress; this officer has done much to help girls' schools in organising games and sports. The allowance of the Physical Instructress of Bethune Collegiate School was reduced during the period for financial reasons.

The temporary Physical Training Centre, which was opened in July 1932 was granted during the period another year's lease of life. It cost Rs. 11,835-8 and in the second session which ended in March 1934 out of 19 students who joined the centre 15 completed the course and were awarded diplomas, the remaining 4 students were passed later after further examination. Two Nepali students were also trained by special arrangement. The local branches of the All-Bengal Teachers' Association, Calcutta and Dacca, organised a five weeks' training camp in each of which 46 teachers were trained in May-June 1934; altogether 85 of these teachers were awarded diplomas in physical training.

During the year under review a sum of Rs. 12,374-8 was sanctioned by Government for the purposes noted below:—

			Rs.	l.
(i) Training of Subdivisional Inspectors of Schools	1,000	0
(ii) Training of Sub-Inspectors of Schools	1,000	0
(iii) Training of teachers of middle English schools	600	0
(iv) Training of teachers of Junior Madrasahs	400	0
(v) Training of teachers of guru training schools	900	0
(vi) Health and games grants to girls' schools	1,475	0
(vii) Grants to play centres and clubs	4,999	8
(viii) Grants for inter-school competition	2,000	0
Total	12,374	8

One Subdivisional Inspector of Schools, 22 Sub-Inspectors of Schools and 57 teachers underwent a short course of training during the period; 14 girls' schools were aided with health and game grants; and 36 clubs were aided with game grants. The expenditure on all these items amounted to Rs. 9,438-9.

Among western games, football is most popular; hockey, tennis, and badminton are also played in urban areas. Indigenous games like hadudu, kapati, etc., are preferred in rural areas because they involve little or no expense. Swimming and rowing are practised in those places which can provide the organisation and funds required for the purpose.

In the Inter-School Drill Competition held by the Physical Director during the period under review, the Reformatory School, Alipore, topped the list. Drill together with games, folk dances and folk songs (the last two items introduced by Mr. G. S. Dutt, i.c.s., founder of the Bratachari Association) are doing much to remove the dullness and monotony of school work and have infused new life in the student community. The District Board of Birbhum has spent a sum of Rs. 550 on account of the employment of some itinerant instructors for the introduction of folk dances and folk songs in the schools of that district.

4. Boy scouts.—During the scout year 1933 there were in the presidency altogether 49 local associations, 340 troop officers, 127 pack officers, 6,436 scouts, 2,786 cubs, 462 rovers and 111 local association officers as compared with 52 local associations, 337 troop officers, 111 pack officers, 5,447 scouts, 2,116 cubs, 412 rovers and 131 local association officers in the previous year. The normal annual grant of Rs. 6,000 was paid to the Calcutta Branch of the Baden-Powell Boy Scout Association. According to the recommendations of Mr. N. N. Bhose, Provincial Organising Secretary, Bengal Boy Scout Association, a sum of Rs. 4,000 was also distributed to Government and non-Government schools with a view to help them in purchasing scout outfit, flags, charts, etc., required for the development of the scout movement in these schools.

5. Girl guides.—Girl guide companies are in existence in most of the important high and middle English schools in the presidency.

6. Medical supervision.—No funds were available in the year under report for giving effect to the scheme of medical examination and supervision of the pupils of Government High English schools and Senior Madrasahs outside Calcutta which has consequently been held in abeyance. As regards the scheme of medical inspection of the pupils of Government and aided secondary schools in the city of Calcutta, which has been transferred to the control of the Education Department since March 1933, the work was carried on as before by three part-time medical officers. The Asansol Mines Board of Health has a School Medical Officer for the mines area who examined the students of 54 schools during the year under review. The Medical Board attached to the Students' Welfare Committee of Calcutta University visited seven colleges and three high English schools in and around Calcutta. The total number of students examined during the year was 2,560. The follow-up and after-care work of the students suffering from defects and diseases was further developed, but the progress of medical examination was held up for a time owing to the inability of certain colleges to provide the necessary facilities.

7. Hygiene.—Lessons in Hygiene are given in all classes of schools, although it is a compulsory subject for Classes III to VIII. Theoretical lessons in Hygiene however are of little practical value unless the general principles inculcated by them are observed by students in their daily life. Propaganda work by means of lectures and exhibitions illustrated by magic lanterns which were organised at some centres are reported to have been both interesting and instructive. It is gratifying to note that in some schools the students have done such rural welfare work as cleaning of jungles, tanks and filth and burning of bamboo clumps.

8. Discipline.—The murder of Mr. B. E. J. Burge, District Magistrate of Midnapore, by a schoolboy from the local Collegiate School brought added disgrace to that unhappy neighbourhood and was a rude reminder that evil forces masked under the guise of patriotism were still at work. Much steady and patient work must be done before the poison is neutralised, and schools were encouraged by frank talks with boys and the provision of recreation for them out of school hours to create a more healthy atmosphere.

In some districts where a ward system has been introduced into schools, there has been a tendency to let it degenerate into a mechanical rotation of visits to boys' homes, devoid of the real companionship which is possible between teachers and pupils, and which can do so much to make the "tone" of a school.

In Government colleges, an attempt was made to introduce a tutorial system somewhat on the lines of that in vogue in the older universities in the west, and the result of the experiment will be watched with interest.

9. Religious and moral instruction.—Religious instruction continues to be given only in denominational schools like tols, madrasahs, makhtabs and mission schools. In some institutions there are arrangements for giving religious instruction weekly; in others the days' work begins with a prayer or hymn in which both students and teachers participate. The question of giving religious instruction in public schools attended by students of various castes and creeds is a thorny problem which does not admit of easy solution. Lessons in morality given through the medium of text-books are generally sterile things: practice rather than precept must be the influence, and the social organisation of a school such as first aid classes, poor funds, scouting, debating clubs can be all powerful.

10. National schools.—During the calendar year 1933 the Presidency had 9 national schools with 1,137 pupils on their rolls as compared with 12 such schools having 1,244 pupils in the previous year; thus the number of schools decreased by 3 and that of pupils by 107. Reports received indicate that the influence of national schools on the life of the people in general is steadily diminishing.

CHAPTER XIV.

Conferences and committees.

1. The committee, which was constituted in 1931 to advise Government with regard to the policy to be adopted in future for the advancement of Muslim education in the presidency, has concluded its labours, but the report of the committee was not received during the year under report.

2. The usual local conferences of executive and educational officers were held in several districts, and discussion ranged over questions of grants, the improvement of teaching and Suri had an Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition which comprised a collection of educational exhibits from the district.

3. The Bengal Women's Education League held its eighth annual session in Calcutta in February 1934. Among the resolutions passed by the conference the following deserve special notice:—

- (i) The conference stresses the importance of appointing women teachers in all town schools (primary) for girls and in mufassal schools also just as soon as conditions make such appointments possible.
- (ii) The Bengal Women's Education League shall seek the advice of teachers with experience in village schools with a view to working out a more simplified and therefore more effective syllabus for such schools.
- (iii) The conference urges that from the outset such plans may be made as will ensure matters relating to the education of girls having adequate consideration by the proposed Provincial Board of Secondary Education.
- (iv) The conference views with intense regret the decision to close Diocesan College in Calcutta, a college which has had a worthy tradition in women's college education.
- (v) The conference requests the University to appoint, at the earliest possible date, a qualified woman to supervise all recognised hostels for women.

4. The All-Bengal Teachers' Association held its tenth session at Asansol during the Easter holidays, 1934, and was presided over by Rai Bahadur Khagendra Nath Mitra, M.A. The resolutions passed at the meeting dealt among other things with the following important subjects, e.g., grants-in-aid, Matriculation Regulations, holidays, textbooks, provident fund scheme for teachers in non-pensionable service, rules of the School Code, facilities for female education, revival of the old M. E. and M. V. Examinations in place of the present M. E. and M. V. Scholarship Examinations, compulsory supply of midday refreshment to schoolboys and measures for improving their health.

5. By far the most important educational conference of the year was the one held at Government House, Calcutta, on 23rd, 24th and 25th of November 1933. This conference was composed of representatives of the Governments of Bengal and Assam and of the Universities of Calcutta and Dacca together with certain non-official members and one teacher deputed by the All-Bengal Teachers' Association. At the outset the conference was presided over by His Excellency the Governor, but during His Excellency's absence the chair was occupied by the Hon'ble the Education Minister, Bengal. Important educational questions, viz., the weaknesses of the present system of university education, more effective co-operation between the different institutions responsible for university teaching, the concentration of Honours Class in selected colleges, control of secondary education, the relation of secondary education to the Matriculation Examination and the financial instability of schools were discussed at the meetings.

The following resolutions were adopted:—

- (i) Whereas it is essential to make provision for the better regulation and control of secondary education in Bengal, this conference is of opinion that a Statutory Board of Secondary Education should be established at an early date. This Board should have full authority to exercise such powers as may be entrusted to it by the statute:

Provided that sufficient funds should also be placed at the disposal of the Board for the purpose of discharging its functions and that the formation of the Board does not prejudicially affect the financial position of Calcutta University.

- (ii) That this conference is of opinion that immediate steps should be taken for increasing the supply of trained teachers for work in secondary schools.
- (iii) In the opinion of the conference, there should be no ban on high schools maintaining primary and secondary classes.
- (iv) This conference is of opinion that immediate steps be taken to make an educational survey of the province with a view to finding out whether any amalgamation, reduction, redistribution or addition to the number of high schools is desirable, in order that the fullest benefit may be obtained from the available resources; any such rearrangement that might be found desirable should be so planned as to permit of the extension of educational facilities with the expansion of resources.

CHAPTER XV.

Text-book committee.

1. During the year under review, two members of the Provincial Text-Book Committee died and one member resigned his membership as he was absent from India for more than six months.

2. One thousand six hundred and seventy-seven books were received by the Secretary, Provincial Text-Book Committee, by the 31st March 1933 for consideration. Of these, 1,373 books were circulated to regular and co-opted members for examination, 304 books being rejected by the Secretary at the preliminary examination. In addition to the ordinary members 23 co-opted members had to be appointed to cope with the work of examination. Six hundred and six books were approved by this department during the year under report for use in secondary schools in this presidency.

3. The changes shown below were made by Government in the syllabuses of studies for primary and secondary schools and in the rules for the working of the Provincial Text-Book Committee during the year on the recommendation of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal:—

- (i) The syllabuses in Physical Training for secondary and primary schools were revised and new books for teachers were approved to replace Dr. Gray's Drill Book.
 - (ii) Rule 30 of the Text-Book Committee Rules was changed so that text-books approved by the department should continue on the approved list for four years instead of three.
 - (iii) The limit prescribed for text-books approved by this department under rules 10 (vi) and 17 of the Text-Book Committee Rules was fixed uniformly at 30 for all subjects instead of 30 in English, Vernacular and Mathematics and 15 in other subjects previously sanctioned by Government.
4. The award of the Braja Mohan Dutt Prize for Indian Ladies of the value of Rs. 45 for the year 1932-33 jointly to Miss Kumudini Rakshit and Sreemati Kalyani Devi was approved by the General Committee of the Provincial Text-Book Committee at its meeting held on the 2nd September 1933.

The following subject was chosen for the essay for the year 1933-34:—

"The importance of physical education in girls' schools and the forms of exercise best suited for girls."

CHAPTER XVI.

Education in the Legislative Council.

No important motion or resolution affecting education was debated in the Bengal Legislative Council during the year under review. The demands for educational grants in March 1933 provided, as usual, opportunities to members to discuss among other things the action of the Calcutta University in the matter of co-education, the policy of Government regarding the establishment of a Provincial Board of Secondary Education, and the desirability of slowing down university education until primary education is further advanced. In addition questions were asked with a view to elicit information about more detailed matter and their varieties showed that members of the Legislative Council continued to take a lively interest in the policy and administration of the Education Department.

of the Co-operative Societies in the Co-operative Societies.

CALCUTTA, THE 16TH JULY 1935.

RESOLUTION—No. 3526 Co-op.

Minister-in-charge: The Hon'ble Nawab K. G. M.
Faroqui, Khan Bahadur.

Read—

The Report on the working of the Co-operative Societies in the Presidency of Bengal for the year ending 30th June 1934.

Khan Bahadur A.M. Arshad Ali was in charge of the department throughout the period under review. During the earlier part of the period the superior staff of the department consisted of five Assistant Registrars and one Personal Assistant. In March 1934 a temporary post of Deputy Registrar was created to assist in introducing the new land mortgage banks, and the post of Assistant Registrar, Presidency Division, was left vacant.

2. The history of the period is again mainly one of struggle to maintain the credit of the movement through a period which unfavourable climatic conditions in some parts of the province, combined with economic depression throughout, made one of strain and anxiety. Government are accordingly glad to observe that, though no striking progress was secured, or could indeed have reasonably been expected, the department was on the whole in a stronger position at the close of the period than at its beginning.
The Central Banks and all classes of societies increased their reserves.
The Central Banks also increased their receipts from loans and deposits repaid by over Rs. 11½ lakhs and their issue of loans by over Rs. 1½ lakhs. In the case of agricultural societies the decrease in repayments by individuals was more than off-set by the increased repayments from banks and societies. It is satisfactory to find that there was an improvement in the recovery of overdue debts, but the outstanding sums are still disquietingly heavy and the Registrar has already paid special attention to the problem of their recovery. His report discusses the causes of the present position, which the various measures initiated to meet the difficulty. Perhaps the most important of these is the all-round reduction of interest rates, which, being in excess over the rates now prevalent in the open market, are an embarrassment to all types of society. Government are glad to note the progress already made in this direction. Another valuable development is the reorganisation of inspecting arrangements so as to secure more control and supervision with the existing staff.

While one of the objects of the movement is to give training in self-organisation in self-help, times like the present throw a great strain on the resources of the great majority of societies, and the check and guidance of trained officers is necessary for the maintenance of that confidence without which they cannot survive and retain the confidence and support of their members. Government will watch with interest the progress of these and of the other measures which the Registrar has initiated to maintain the solvency of the societies.

3. Effect was given to the previous year's decision by the establishment of three of the five land mortgage banks which Government are introducing to meet the demand for long-term credit.
It was not possible before the close of the year to form an opinion as to the extent to which they will succeed in fulfilling their purpose. Their establishment was, however, generally welcomed, and Government will be prepared to make any change in their organisation, compatible with their financial security, which appears likely in the light of experience to make their operations more valuable to those whom they are designed to help.

4. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Agriculture) have much pleasure in acknowledging the assistance rendered to the movement by the various district and subdivisional officers named by the Registrar and of non-official gentlemen connected in the movement. The thanks of Government are due to Khan Bahadur A. M. Arshad Ali for the way in which he has discharged his duties during another difficult year. The Hon'ble Minister also notices with pleasure the good work done by the departmental officers mentioned by the Registrar.

By order of the Govt. of Bengal
(Ministry of Agriculture),
